

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. William McCauslin.
Mrs. William McCauslin died at her residence, 101 Sheriff street, on June 7 after a long illness. She had resided in the North End for the greater part of her life and will be sincerely mourned. Her husband pre-deceased her. Two sons and two daughters survive. The sons are Andrew and John, of this city, and the daughters are Miss Hannah, of Boston, and Mrs. William Walton, of this city. The funeral will take place on Saturday morning to St. Peter's church.

George W. Chapman.
The death of George W. Chapman, a former resident of St. John, occurred on May 29 at Savannah, Ga., after a short illness. He is survived by his wife and two sons. His wife, formerly Miss Rosa Evans, was also a native of this city. Deceased was sixty-seven years of age.

SISTER MARY ALOYSIA.

(Halifax Chronicle.)
There passed away at Mount Saint Vincent on Wednesday morning in the person of Sister Mary Aloysia Gillespie, one of the most devoted and revered members of the Institute of the Sisters of Charity. Though never of robust health, Sister Aloysia has been, through her rare personality, able to respond perfectly to the many and varied positions of trust given her in the community. In each she stood for the noblest and best possible to the faithful follower of Christ, her chosen ideal.

At the time of her decease, Sister Aloysia held office as one of the Assistants to the Mother General, a duty hers for about eighteen years. As Superior in several of the Halifax houses of the order, and in Roxbury, Massachusetts, she had much to do in the schools and, notably, in certain social service departments connected with the Children of Mary in these localities. All whose privilege it was to work with Sister in these offices can truly testify to her extreme care and devotedness to the cause of the children and the poor confided to her guardianship.

Sister Aloysia was born at Parrsboro, N. S. Her four brothers are settled in that town in prominent mercantile positions. Her sisters are Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Sullivan of Moncton, and Mrs. Brown of Rothesay, Western Canada. Two of her nephews are Rev. Father William Brown, pastor of Amherst, and Rev. James Brown, recently

CONCERT IN AID OF SCHOOL FUND

Excellent Programme Given to Raise Money for School Piano.

A large audience enjoyed a concert in the G. W. V. A. hall last evening, the proceeds of which are in aid of the piano fund for the Winter street school. Last night a satisfactory sum was realized and it is hoped that before long a sufficient amount will be in hand to make the needed purchase.

The numbers were as follows: Selection, by the orchestra; chorus; recitation, Clarence Taylor; piano duet, Misses Helen Morgan and Doris Corbett; reading, Miss Myrtle Crawford; chorus, eight boys; patriotic exercise, pupils of grades five, six and seven; intermission; chorus; recitation, Vernon Baston; solo, Miss Florence Dunham; reading, Miss Laura Fanjoy; solo, E. Clyde Parsons; trio, grade eight girls; God Save the King. The proceeds of the concert by the pupils of Winter street school, last night, will be between $160 and $200. By the sale of candy alone $52 was realized and the G. W. V. A. hall was thronged to the doors by the members of the audience who would not be denied admission and for whom the "standing room only" sign was only a further reason for insisting on admission. W. A. Nelson, the principal, was greatly pleased with the results.

London Actress Loses Necklace

Gems Valued at £20,000 Disappear From Hotel Apartment — Detectives Believe Them Misplaced.

(Canadian Press Cable.)
London, June 8.—A necklace, said to be valued at £20,000, the property of Mrs. Wm. E. Corey, formerly Mabel Gilman, an actress, disappeared from her apartment in the Carlton Hotel, Wednesday evening. Scotland Yard detectives investigating the case assert the belief that the necklace was misplaced or lost, and that it was not stolen. The hotel management announces that it is of the same belief as the detectives. A search made by Mrs. Corey of her apartment yesterday failed to reveal the missing necklace.

Organize Branch Of Press Club Here

A St. John branch of the Canadian Women's Press Club was organized yesterday afternoon at a meeting held in the Sign of the Lantern tea rooms, when Mrs. Harold Lawrence entertained the four other charter members of the new society at a most enjoyable tea. Mrs. Lawrence was elected president and Miss May Fleet was elected secretary both by acclamation and the St. John branch had a most auspicious launching. Included in the membership are Miss Stella Payson, whose children's stories are a genuine delight to all children and to very many grown-ups, Miss Jessie Lawson, whose contributions to educational magazines are highly valued, and Miss Fleet, whose well written articles and book reviews have appeared in many leading publications. The president, Mrs. Harold Lawrence, has made an enviable name for herself in newspaper work, as reporter, special writer and editorial writer and her contributions to magazines are always eagerly read. Two applications for membership were received at the meeting and both were heartily endorsed. These applications will be forwarded to the National headquarters.

THE STREET CAR STRIKE IN SCHENECTADY, N. Y.

Schenectady, N. Y., June 8.—Car ran less frequently on local lines and not at all on interurban routes yesterday, apparently as the outcome of disorders attending the conduct of the strike on the lines of the Schenectady Railway Company Wednesday and early yesterday morning. All cars ceased operation at six o'clock last night, two hours earlier than is customary.

Interurban service was halted ostensibly because of fear that attempts to damage the track would be resumed, efforts to burn a wooden trestle on the Schenectady-Saratoga line yesterday morning proving futile. Lack of men apparently caused the reduced service on local runs.
