IN MEMORIAM

ORAM—In loving memory of Daniel Emsley Oram, killed in action on June 13, 1918. He was an original member of the 26th N. B. Battalion.

He fell in the great battle just two years today,
Where his noble young life was left ebbing away; Oh, how his thoughts, they must have To his loving mother and dear ones left at home.

What would I give now, if I only had been there

To soothe and comfort him with a mother's carc.

CROZIER—In sad but loving memory of my darling mother, Margaret A. Crozier, who departed this life June 17, 1911.

Nine years have passed Since that said and thrilling. Another number, which has been making a hit, is that of Chas. Gibbs, a musical mimic, who is a pleasing and elever imitator of various instruments. The Pit Boy, in a novel vocal specialty, was also well received and has been making many friends. The other acts are also pleasing and, combined with an interesting episode of "Lightning Bryce" the programme is both pleasing and highly entertaining.

The new programme for tomorrow.

Tonight will be the last opportunity for patrons of the Opera House to see the Spanish Goldinis in their great European novelty. The dance, with electric effects is in itself a feature, while their athletic feats are eleverly executed and thrilling. Another number, which has been making a hit, is that of Chas. Gibbs, a musical mimic, who is a pleasing and elever imitator of various instruments. The Pit Boy, in a novel vocal specialty, was also well received and has been making many friends. The other acts are also pleasing and, combined with an interesting episode of "Lightning Bryce" the programme for tomorrow afternoon and evening will be as follows: Foster and Peggy, in a novel presentation "That Two Bit-K-9"; Carsonia, in her great singing surprises; Caits Bros. and Beatrice, in a comedy and dancing skit. "The Tailored-Made Boys and Their Sweetie"; Butler and New Bill for Tomorrow.
