GROCERY REPORT FROM THREE CITIES OF THE DOMINION THURSDAY,

The following comment on the market situation as regards food stuffs appeared in Canadian Grocer last week:
Grocery markets continue to rule with a firm undertone. Although both retailers and wholesalers are not booking orders for future delivery as freely as in the past, business generally is very promisioner.

ONLY TWO LINES

IN HARDWARE ARE QUOTED AS LOWER ("Hardware and Metal." July 17.)

Hardware commodities manufactured from iron or steel continue to advance in price and the tendency is for still higher quotations. Many important price changes have been made this week and with the exception of linseed oil and turpentine all lines have been revised upwards.

Wrought pipe prices have again been advanced. Wire nails also have higher quotations. Nipples, couplings and unions are up several points. A sharp advance has been made on lanterns. Bar iron and steel, wash benches, wringers and washing machines. clay picks, mattocks, car movers, sisal and jute halters, polishing mops, curry combs, cross cut saw sets, pipe wrenches, toilet clippers. sweat pads, shears, roofing shingles, roofing nails, gem casters, chandelier hooks, rope cleats, hitching rings, nail pullers, stocks and dies, pliers, carpenters' pincers, plumb bobs, band screws, whiffietrees, doubletrees and neck yokes, bull rings, paper clips, paper files and some lines of cutlery all are on the list of higher revised prices.

Many are concerned for future delivery of goods especially for fall delivery, on account of the set back the majority of industries have experienced, owing to the tie-up of freight transportation. The great shortage of coal is also an important factor in holding back production. The scarcity of many lines of hardware is not being readily overcome and many will have to be satisfied with a smaller turnover on account of not being able to secure the goods to sell. Wire and wire products are daily becoming more scarce with little-signs of an early relief.

Collections are coming satisfactorily.
