HOW TO SUCCEED

During the last few years, conditions in all lines of business, even professional life, have changed so completely that every man is waking up to the fact that in order to win success he must speculate and learn to do some one thing and do it well. So it is with any article that is sold to the people. It must have genuine merit or no amount of advertising will maintain the demand for the article.

For many years we have watched with much interest the remarkable record maintained by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder remedy. From the very beginning the proprietors had so much confidence in it that they invited every one to test it, free of cost, before purchasing.

It is a physician's prescription. They have on file thousands of letters received from former sufferers who are now enjoying good health as a result of its use.

However, if you wish first to try a sample bottle address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention this paper. They will gladly forward you a sample bottle, by mail, absolutely free.

Regular size for sale at all druggists in Canada. 75 and $1.25.

Commonsense Treatment for a Blotchy Skin

WHY is your skin covered with red blotches? The answer is plain, can be, You own a sweet tooth. You neglect the night toilet of the face and body, and you show little wisdom in the choice of your cosmetics.

If fair woman would learn to properly wash and rinse and dry her face at night, treat her stomach with consideration and use only the best creams and lotions, I think many a complexion trouble could be averted. This is good hearing, is it not?

Don't say you keep your skin absolutely clean, M'Lady, as only one woman out of fifty does this. I don't mean that the average woman fails to wash her face, but I do think that brushing the face over with a damp cloth, giving a perfunctory scrub with a dry towel and pinching the cheeks until they flame with scarlet, does not suffice to get the dirt out of the pores.

Keep your face immaculately clean by the plentiful use of hot water, good soap and friction. Always scour your face at night until it is free from all grime, and I won't say so if you give it another such rub-a-dub-dub sometime during the day.

It is just as imperative to bathe the body daily as it is the face. Remember that the human body has between two and three hundred thousand pores, and that each one of these pores keeps busy exuding poisonous matter. Now if they should become clogged with grime or dried outside, they would be unable to properly perform their duty. You know and I know that this would mean pimples galore.

Make a habit of the daily bath and be rewarded by a clear skin.

In the beginning of this article I told the lovers of a blameless skin to treat their stomachs with consideration. I hope they will lay this advice to heart, as the foolish man who regularly indulges in candy, cake, lobster, crab and other food frivolities, can be quite sure that a blotchy skin will eventually be her property.

WRUNG MURDER SECRET FROM GIRL UNDER A PROMISE TO WED

Bevin Detective Unravels Mystery of Boy's Death

Servant Girl and Lover Were Robbing The House When Lad Surprised Them—Strangled and Body Then Hung to Window to Indicate Suicide

Bevin, April 25—How a detective induced a young girl to make a confession in connection with a murder by betrothing himself to her has been revealed here.

In October last year a fifteen-year-old schoolboy named Ernest Timmann was apparently found hanged at his home in Charlottetown. At first it was supposed that the boy had committed suicide, for cases of that kind are common in Germany. But as the lad had stood well in his class and had not been dependent his mother suspected that he might have been murdered and that one of her two servants, who was alone in the house at the time of the boy's death, might have been connected with the tragedy. The girl in question was named Elsie Heinrich, and she recently received notice to leave.

The boy's mother engaged a detective to watch the girl at Rummelburg, where she went to live with her father, the leader of the town band, he detective, masquerading as a wealthy young merchant, became an auditor for the girl as she was under suspicion of having murdered the boy. The detective assured the girl that he was ready to marry her, even if she were guilty, but she must make a clean breast of the affair. Thereupon she confessed that her former sweetheart, a locksmith, strangled the boy, who had found them in the act of rifling the house. In order to give an appearance of suicide, they fastened a curtain cord round the boy's neck and hung the body from a window-frame. The girl was arrested and the police are searching for the locksmith.

WHAT HE IS DOING
It is said that in one of the villages of Carnarvonshire a Tory squire of a decidedly aggressive turn of mind met one day an old Welshwoman who was returning from the post-office with her five shilling old-age pension. The squire knew her opinions. "I suppose that some day Lloyd George will build you a special railway direct to heaven." The old woman looked at him full in the face. "No, sir, not exactly that; but what he is doing is making the waiting-room a bit more comfortable."

Daily Hints For the Cook

STEAMED FRUIT PUDDING
One-half cup sweet milk, 1/2 cup molasses, 1/4 cup shortening (1 use half butter, half lard), 2 cups flour, 1/2 teaspoon soda, 1/2 cup raisins and currants, or just raisins or currants, and a pinch of salt. Sauce for same: Whites of 2 eggs beaten and sugar, then milk. Flavor with vanilla.

RHUBARB PIE.
Line a deep plate with crust and put on a rim, then wash but do not peel the rhubarb and cut in one-half inch pieces. If the stalks are very large should cut them thinner. Fill loosely into the pie and heap the plate a little. Mix a heaping teaspoon of flour with a generous cup of sugar and mix with all grime, sprinkle over the pie and put on upper crust, which has several one-half inch gashes in it to let out steam. I was the edge of under crust before putting on top crust. Do not tuck crust in, but trim it off. Bake in a good oven till crust is brown.

MRS. GAETZ PRESIDENT OF WOMEN'S UNIVERSITY CLUB

Promoters of the women's suffrage movement held a successful meeting last evening and they say that the increase in attendance over the first meeting shows that the interest in the movement is spreading. Miss Clara McDivern read a selection from "No Surrender" by the famous novelist, Constance Mande, and the audience was gripped by the authoress' vivid description of the trials of the women in their efforts to obtain a hearing on the question of women's suffrage. Rev. E. H. Thomas gave an interesting talk on the suffrage movement and expressed himself as being in hearty accord with the fight for the ballot. Mr. Thomas said that in the ministry it was understood that twenty years were required to drive a truth home, so that the women should not be discouraged if the struggle were prolonged for several years. The speaker also said that it was unfair to deny the vote to women when illiterates were allowed to vote simply because they were men.

School Mistress—"Now, Archie, if you were seated in a tramcar, and every seat was occupied, and a lady entered, what would you do?"
Archie—"Pretend I was asleep."

The Kayser's Silk Glove

The "tips" outwear the gloves will give more "real" service and satisfaction than the "ordinary kind"—and "cost no more"—than the glove represented as "just as good."

"KAYSER" Silk Gloves are not the outcome of "claims" or "arguments," but solely the result of a lifetime of striving for the attainment of an ideal, the achievement of which has not been hampered by the restrictions of cost or time.

The guarantee you receive with gloves, sold without the maker's name, rarely ever goes back any further than the clerk who sold the goods.

Every pair of "KAYSER" Silk Gloves contains a guarantee ticket—both the glove and the ticket bear the name "KAYSER." Look for it—it is assurance of quality, fit and value and is there for your protection.
