DYED HER FADED SKIRT TO MAKE CHILD A DRESS

Each package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple that any woman can dye or tint faded, shabby skirts, dresses, waists, coats, sweaters, stockings, hangings, draperies, everything like new. Buy "Diamond Dyes"—no other kind—then perfect home dyeing is guaranteed, even if you have never dyed before. Tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods. Diamond Dyes never streak, spot, fade, or run.

GIRLS! LEMONS BLEACH THE SKIN

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quart of pink of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.

BRUSSELS UNFITTED.
Not Suited for World's Literature Depository.

London, Sept. 17.—The claims of Brussels Institute to be the repository of the world's literature were discussed at the Library Association Conference in Manchester, and divergent views were expressed. Stanley East, of Manchester, declared the Brussels Institute failed to overcome the fundamental difficulty of being a comparatively provincial capital, and such a world library would never approximately achieve its purpose unless housed in a great capital.

ORPHANAGE FAIR DAILY NEWS-LETTER NO. 2

St. John, N. B., Sept. 17.
To the Protestants of N. B.—Greetings: Many people will quite naturally want to know the why and wherefore. The object or objective of this orphanage fair. How we purpose carrying on, and possibly as to why it is that so many factors or organizations have found it desirable to unite in one common cause, or why they should go so far afield with our appeal. To answer all of these questions satisfactorily would necessitate much more space than our disposal in any one issue, in order to learn the details you will need to follow us from day to day.

As stated in our letter of yesterday, there are a large percentage of the children in our local institutions who come from points outside of the city, hence we feel justified in inviting the co-operation of every Protestant who feels disposed to assist in this worthy movement.

If there is any one question more than another which should be of interest to the Protestant people of New Brunswick it is that of caring for the homeless or parentless Protestant children of the province. This is a field of Christian endeavor which has been sadly neglected. While we have a number of small institutions, there are at all times a large waiting list of needy cases seeking admission, but for which there is no accommodation. One not conversant with this work might well say, why not increase the facilities? There are, I may say, very tangible reasons why this has not been done long before this, the chief of which is the apparent lack of action on the part of our people. We do not suggest that this is altogether due to lack of interest. In fact, we feel confident that there is a very decided interest burning in the hearts of many. All that is required is an opportunity to get together. Something to co-ordinate this latent force into action.

In this fraternal fair movement, we seek to create some such organization, an auxiliary force by which we can all get behind those engaged in carrying on this work, assisting them not only in paying off present indebtedness, but also to provide for the additional facilities which are so sorely needed, but not possible under the present indifferent voluntary system of financing this work. We seek your co-operation in this.

See Monday's issue.—Editor Advertising Committee. 9-17

DALLAS JITNEY'S RULED OUT.

The anti-jitney ordinance enacted by the city of Dallas, Texas, designed to stop jitney operation, has been upheld by the court of civil appeals. This ordinance eliminated the jitney from the business district of Dallas by prohibiting them within a prescribed zone, and since passengers were gathered and discharged mainly in the business district, the new ordinance effectively put them out of business. As to the claim that the jitneys that the ordinance was discriminatory in favor of the railway, the court denied such discrimination. It held that the railway was compelled to take measures to ensure the safety of passengers and pedestrians, that the railway could be held liable for any damage done, but that the jitney could not be so held as it had no financial backing.—Adv.
