Heavy Hitting Gives Vets The Victory

Defeat St. Peter's 14-11 in Weird But Interesting Game
—9 Runs in One Inning.

An interesting but weird game of baseball developed at St. Peter's Park last evening between the Vets and St. Peter's and resulted in a win for the former by a score of 14 to 11. The game was an unexpected brand, being interspersed with heavy hitting, some happy plays and some errors. In the first inning the Vets went to bat and were led by Moore, drove in four runs. To many it seemed that in the second, but in the third the game was put on ice, but St. Peter's netted seven. Neither team scored in the fourth, but in the fifth the Vets got away again and scored through the unexpected and late-time gamblers. In the sixth St. Peter's netted four more, but failed to overcome the big lead of their opponents. "Quip" Moore, right fielder for the G. W. V. A., was the individual star of the game, driving out two home runs and securing a total of four hits out of four times at bat. His home run hitting was responsible for his team's victory. McGowan also netted four hits out of five at bats to the plate. During the game St. Peter's used three pitchers, Price, Stafford and King, the last being effective and stopping the Vets' slug.

Vets. vs. Moncton Tonight.
On St. Peter's Park this evening the Vets and Moncton will meet and a battle royal is expected as this game will decide third position in the championship race. Casey's team will undoubtedly put up a great fight for victory, while the Vets with their heavy hitting aggregation should make trouble for the best of them. Beatray or Parlee will be on the mound for the locals, while Green or Dickie will in all probability work for the visitors.

TEN DAYS OF HOBOKEN TO MUCH FOR BRIDE

New York, July 11.—Hoboken is a one-horse town and too dead for me. I'm going back to New York, where there's some life."

William F. H. Hoboken says this is what his wife told him ten days after they were married, and then left for her old home in Manhattan. On this testimony F. H. was granted a divorce by Vice-Chancellor Walker in the Jersey City Chancery Court.

How to Make Red or Black Currant Jelly

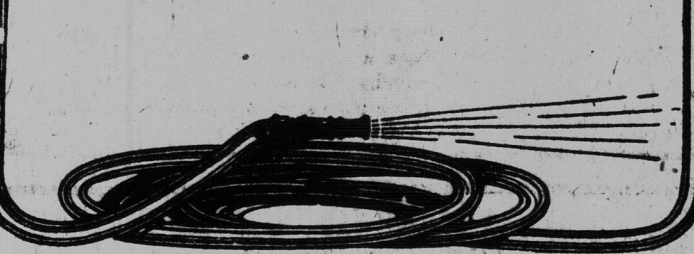

Crush well about 3½ lbs. ripe fruit. Add 1 cup water, stir until boiling, cover pan and simmer 10 minutes. Place in jelly bag and squeeze out juice. Measure 4½ cups juice into large saucepan. Measure 7½ level cups (¾ lbs.) sugar in separate pan. Bring juice just to boil, and begin to add sugar slowly, with constant stirring, taking about 5 minutes to add sugar, keeping juice nearly at boil. Then bring to boil, and at once add ½ bottle (containing ½ cup) Certo, stirring constantly, and bring again to a full boil, for ½ minute. Remove from fire, let stand 1 minute, skim and pour quickly.

Willard and Firpo May
Draw 80,000 to Battle

Advance Sale for Tomorrow
Night's Battle in Jersey
Reaches $300,000 Mark—
Dempsey Bout for Victor.

New York, July 11.—Opportunity will be the prize for which Joe Willard and Luis Angel Firpo will fight in Tex Rickard's big pine saucer at Boyle's Thirty Acres in Jersey City, Thursday night—the opportunity to engage Jack Dempsey for the world's heavyweight championship. Incidentally, of course, the men will reap a golden harvest for their bit, but to date the talk of thousands of dollars and the prospect of a logical match as the result of the fifteen-round bout managed to weather fifteen stormy rounds with Dempsey.

Prior to that time Dempsey had been devoted to a pedestal approach to which had been cut off in public opinion. The champion was regarded by the majority as a superman; a fighter in a class by himself; a king before whom other heavyweights were as pig mies being led to slaughter if matched with him. Since Gibbons went the full distance without being floored even once general opinion has been revived.

Dempsey no longer is regarded as unbeatable. He has been reduced to the condition of a man. Gibbons did not succeed in defeating Dempsey, but he did succeed in knocking the prefix

"super" out of the minds of the fans when Dempsey was being considered. That was something. And that something has helped to make the coming battle between Willard and Firpo.

Expect Record Crowd.
With interest hovering near the fever pitch, with the public now willing to concede that the winner of the clash must be accorded a chance against Dempsey; with the prospect of the champion being matched with the winner, the promoters of the bout seem justified in their optimistic view regarding the gate. Tex Rickard declares that one of the largest crowds that has ever witnessed an outdoor bout will be on hand when Willard attempts his second step in his efforts to rehabilitate himself pugilistically.

Willard took the first step when he knocked out Floyd Johnson for the benefit of himself and the Milk Fund. At the same time Firpo climbed a notch nearer his ambition when he knocked out Jack McAuliffe. These two bouts caused the paths of Willard and Firpo to cross. Now one must give way to the other. Who will gain the right of way is the question that is agitating fans everywhere.

They are going to battle twelve rounds. If they are both on their feet at the expiration of that time there will be no official decision. Decisions are taboo in New Jersey, but a popular decision will be rendered. The fans will have decided to their own satisfaction which of these two mammoths of the ring is entitled to fight with Dempsey's punch, unless, of course, the bout should be so close that there is little to choose between the men.

This, however, is unlikely. It also is unlikely that the bout will go the limit. If the referee, Harry Lewis of Newark, were empowered under the law to render a decision the belief is general that he would not be called upon to do so. The majority are entrenched in the idea that the referee's duties on Thursday night will be confined to seeing that the rules of boxing are observed and counting ten over one or the other of the rivals. The crowd themselves fed that way about it.

In the semi-final of twelve rounds two other heavyweights will strive to regain a place in the boxing sun. Floyd Johnson, who was coming along so strong until Willard upset him from his aspirations, and Jack McAuliffe 2d will meet in what amounts to a consolation bout. Both having been the direct cause, or part of the cause for the fracas between Willard and Firpo, they were matched to fight it out. The winner will regain much of the prestige he lost. The loser—well, it means just that much more of a climb for him before he can hope to gain recognition as a fighter of the first flight.

Fighting for Big Opportunity.
Naturally, chief interest centres in the fistie argument between Willard and the giant South American. It is admitted that Gibbons' showing against Dempsey has earned him the right to a return bout, but his return meeting undoubtedly will be deferred until Dempsey engages the winner of the Willard-Firpo battle. Were these two men fighting for the gate receipts alone the bout would mean nothing more than a bout. But the fact that they are fighting for opportunity has caused the public to dig deep into its coffers to lend its support.

It is estimated that upward of 80,000 persons will be present to pass judgment on the fighters. The arena can seat more than 90,000 persons. As the crowd swells, Jack Dempsey dissipates the hopes of Georges Carpentier in the same ring two years ago this month. If 80,000 attend it will be the second largest crowd that has ever witnessed a fight. If 80,000 attend it means Willard and Firpo will be well repaid for their efforts.

On the strength of the belief that a tremendous crowd will be present to pass judgment on the fighters, the arena has made elaborate arrangements to handle the crowd with dispatch. Eight hundred policemen and firemen and 300 plain clothes men will be detailed to handle the crowd. In addition, Rickard has arranged to have 300 ushers and as many private policemen on hand to maintain order.

Rickard yesterday said: "I am determined that there shall be no disorder and as little congestion and confusion as possible. The Jersey City officials have agreed to assist me in every way in maintaining order. The police arrangements and the fire arrangements are all that could be desired. I know that a big crowd will be there. The advance sale indicates that. It has been extremely heavy. I am informed that it has reached close to the $300,000 mark."

"With prices ranging from $1 to $15 even the layman can appreciate what it means in the way of the number of persons who will be there. I have promoted many big matches, but none has shown more wide-spread interest than this one, with the exception, of course, of the Dempsey-Carpentier bout. That affair established a record that is likely to stand for a long time to come."

"It always has been my aim to see that the purchasers of seats get the seats their coupons call for. Thus far I think I have succeeded. I know that I can assure the fans that they will get their right seats for this bout. I have been very careful to see that the location of the seats in their sections. There will be no confusion in this respect."

GOLF MARATHON MARK TWICE BROKEN IN DAY

Hightpoint, N. C., July 11.—Herbert Obendorf, professional golfer at Hightpoint Country Club recently surpassed the golf marathon mark made recently by N. J. Morris, amateur of San Antonio, Tex. Obendorf played 248 holes between 4:11 a. m. and 4:33 p. m. Morris' record was 238 holes. Obendorf's elation over his feat was short-lived, however, for he soon learned that his lengthy performance was not a new record after all, Rudolph Supan reaping that glory at Cleveland with 257 holes on the same day.

The annual picnic of the Sacred Heart church at Norton of which Rev. Michael O'Brien is pastor, was postponed yesterday until today because of the inclemency of the weather.
