NEW BY-LAW CONTAINS SEVERAL INNOVATIONS

Buildings Divided Into Three Classes—Fire Limits Arranged to Suit

Viewed in the long distance aspect the new building by-law which will be up for discussion at the city council to-morrow night is by far the longest piece of legislation which the muni-cipal authorities have had to deal with for some time. Published in book form, with the batters peculiar to the "shilling shocker" minus the glaring frontispiece, it covers eighty-six pages of solid reading matter, and presents a formidable aspect to other than the ardent student of civic life and the intricacies of its regulation and development.
