It is also specified that work on the road must commence at once and be carried report stating that it must be finished this year, which seems a little doubtful. It is further stated that while the subject was being discussed in the government caucus Mr. Blair announced that for the section from the Columbia to Penticton the subsidy would be given to an independent company. He was thereupon asked whether this was to be Mr. Heinze's company, and he replied that the matter had not been closed. It is the general impression that the Columbia & Western is to be the recipient of this subsidy, a prospect which is not at all agreeable to the people of the coast districts. Mr. Maxwell is reported as informing the government that such arrangement would have his active opposition, and we should expect all who understand the situation and are alive to the coast cities' interests to give Mr. Maxwell their aid in this. Of course the provincial government has been doing its best for Mr. Heinze in this matter, and Mr. Turner may be depended on to put forth his best efforts to secure the plum for the Columbia & Western.

THE O. K. MINE. A Heavy Decline in Its Stock Causes a Sensation.

Spokesman-Review. June 4.-The sud den decline of O. K. stock on the exchange from the neighborhood of 20 cents, where it has been held for some time, to 7 cents, the price for which it sold yesterday, was the subject for a great deal of comment. The surprise was all the greater as there were such heavy offerings, for not only were there several lots of 10,000 shares offered, but one lot of 40,000. Competition among holders to sell caused a competitive de cline, until it was finally offered at 101. while 1,000 shares went at 7. Added to this were rumors that another onslaught would be made on the stock to-day. An effort was made to locate the exact reason for this sudden change in values, but brokers who were familiar with the facts were unwilling to talk at present, and a call at the Spokane office of the company found it locked yesterday afternoon. One of the stories on the street was that a large block of the stock had been placed within a certain bank as security and that the owner, realizing his inability to redeem it, had arranged for its sale in order to realize enough cash to pay off the debt and leave no with the entire stock. Mr. Foster has deficits which might be found should the charge of the shop and lost his gold bank throw the stock on a dull market. This may or may not be true.
