

CHARGES AGAINST SEALERS

Captain Folger Says British Boats Openly Violate the Sealing Regulations.

He is Making Affidavits Which are to be Used in the Marvin Case.

San Francisco, Sept. 27.—If the stories of the American captains are to be believed, Canadian schooners are violating every clause of the regulations. It is said that the attorney-general will take steps to establish evidence to lay before the British officials.

The latest story is told by Captain Folger, of the schooner Edward D. Webster, who says he has seen many British vessels in Behring Sea, and saw every one armed and ammunition unsecured and ready for use.

for Detroit last night. A well dressed man entered the Pullman stopping at the first occupied berth, slipped in and choked into silence Mrs. George Macr, the occupant.

DURRANT IN A TIGHTER PLACE.

His Alibi, the Chief Point in the Defense, Falls.

San Francisco, Sept. 26.—The alibi which the defense in the Durrant case has been depending upon so much, has proved to be a soap bubble. Dr. Cheney, lecturer at the college where Durrant was a student, has said that he cannot swear that the prisoner was present at the lecture on the afternoon of April 3. In an interview on the question he says: "I have been interviewed and questioned on this subject dozens of times since the arrest of Theodore Durrant, and on these occasions I have stated that I did not know whether the defendant in the case now on trial was in my class room or not on the afternoon of April 3, 1895."

This witness, therefore, gave disappointing testimony today. Instead of testifying that Durrant was present at the lecture, as Attorney Deuprey said, Dr. Cheney would do, the doctor said he had no recollection of seeing the young man.

London, Sept. 27.—The Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon prints a dispatch from Shanghai which says: "Appearance indicates that England is finally in earnest with regard to the massacre of Christians.
