The Advance of 7th inst., in an editorial entitled "election rumors," said:

"Tickets are talked of, but there is no reasonable prospect of any being formed, as the business of ticket-mak ug—especially in opposition to the Government — must be a failure, in view of the experience we have had with the last ticket of that complexion."

A local paper, however, published the following on 13th inst.

"SMITH IS SNUBBED."

umberiand County has been rudely disturbed within the past fortnight by public display of a spirit upon which the constituency should place the stamp of its disapprobation. The public mind has been, for a month or more, directed towards the subject of a general election for the provincial Assemeral election for the provincial Assembly, and the people of this County have which Mr. Tweedie's repudiation of the which Mr. Tweedie's repudiation of the bly, and the people of this County have net been behind those of other parts of the province in manifesting an interest therein. It is not unreasonable, in view of the fact that Northumberland has, of late, failed to secure her accessioned place in the government of the province, that some of her people abould entertain the idea that some change in her representation might be
