

Holiday Announcements.

GRAND HOLIDAY SALE! SWEEPING REDUCTIONS IN PRICES IN DRY GOODS

Noonan's Cheap Cash Store, During Holiday Season.

Plaid, Plaided Dress Goods, Ladies' Furs in great variety.

BROWN AND BLACK BOAS, Caps in Seal, Plucked Ostrich, Persian Lamb and Beaver at astonishing low prices that defy competition.

For Christmas Presents, M. F. NOONAN, Chatham, N. B.

A MERRY XMAS AND A Happy New Year TO ALL.

Full and Complete Line OF CHOICE GOODS FOR THE Holiday Season,

COMPRISING: New L. L. Raisins, New Valencia Raisins, New Currants, New Prunes and Dates, Orange, Lemon & Citron Peels, Flavoring Extracts, Choice Confectionery, plain and Fancy Biscuits, all fresh and new, Lard in Tins and Pails, Mince Meat, Hams and Roll Bacon.

A full line of CANNED GOODS, W. J. MOWATT, CHATHAM, N. B. LONDON HOUSE.

Good Dry Codfish, R. HOCKEN, Worth makes the man, and want of the rest is all but Leather or Prunello.

COME TO NICOLS, Felt Boots and Slippers, Warm Overshoes, Laced Jersey Overshoe, Misses' Goat laced boots with real Chamouis Lining, $1.75 TO $2.00, LADIES' SKATING BOOTS, GENTS' VELVET SLIPPERS, Moccassins & Snowshoes, Christmas Presents, THE GOLDEN BOOT, JAS NICOLS, Teacher Wanted.

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

THE SCOUT "REALITY," Capt. Dan Miller, has been lost about four miles east of Point du Chene, crew saved.

THE PASTORATE of Miramichi will meet at Waldford, Kent, on Tuesday, Dec. 9th, at 2 p. m. standard time.

READ the Chatham Foundry ad, Mr. Gillette conducts one of the oldest and best known of our industrial establishments, and is increasing his facilities for turning out the largest orders.

BREKEMAN KILLED—An Intercollegiate Railway brakeman named Brekeman fell from his car on Saturday morning last, when leaving St. Flavie station. He was instantly killed by the cars running over him.

To restore, thicken, and give to your luxuriant growth of hair, to keep its color natural as in youth, and to remove dandruff, use only Hall's Hair-Restorer.

A BRO HAIR of smelt was made between Middle Island and Black Brook on Tuesday night. The hourly office estimates it at 100 tons—an average of half a ton to each of the 200 boats under license.

MR. T. P. MOWATT'S CASE.—Mr. Alex. Mowat of Campbellton returned home on Saturday last from Montreal, where he has been caring for the brother, who was injured in the explosion at the L. E. Station at the former place. He reports his brother's case a very serious one, but the doctors still give hopes of his recovery.

"BY GUN"—James Atkinson, of Apple River, N. S., has contracted to pick 600 pounds of gum this winter to be delivered to the London house at Parrsboro.

MR. MCKENZIE of the Medical Hall, Chatham, has been re-elected an Examiner under the pharmacy laws of New Brunswick. This is the third successive term Mr. McKenzie has been chosen by his fellow graduates of the Province as an examiner, showing the confidence they have in him as a thoroughly competent chemist.

C. M. DORRICK & CO. of St. John, N. B., are, this fall, carrying and distributing large quantities of goods such as molasses, sugar, pork, beef, bacon, etc. They are now receiving 1,200 fall Canadian cheese, 1,000 tubs butter, 1,000 boxes new raisins, and are in a position to make lowest prices to intending purchasers.

SOME PORKERS—Two pigs were killed by Mr. William McDonald on the south side of the river the other day which weighed 220 and 200 pounds respectively. They were sixteen months old. Who can beat this?—Review.

THIS is very good for Kent County—but Mr. L. M. Macdonald of the River, who has a number of hogs, has killed one that weighed 600 lbs. on 10 months old. It is the largest ever.

POPULAR EVENING ENTERTAINMENT—An Evening Entertainment under the auspices of the Juvenile Temperance Chapter of the Order of St. Mary and St. Paul will be held in St. Mary's School Room on Tuesday evening next, Dec. 9th inst. The well known and deserved popularity of these entertainments in the past will no doubt cause a crowded house.

DOES open at 7.30. Entertainment to begin at 8 o'clock. Admission 10 cents.

ICE AT FERRISBURGH—Last week when we were enjoying mild weather and the Chatham was making her usual trips between Chatham and Ferrisburgh, it was reported that the latter was up to the neck in ice.

THIS is the season when there occur so many downy frosts, but as yet nothing of that kind has happened here. Yesterday there were some narrow escapes however, and it is reported that the latter was up to the neck in ice.

GETTING INTO THE INDIAN ISLANDS—The steamer returned out towards the center of the river, and was through. Fortunately there had been large quantities of sugar, iron and tin of the crowd. Miss Sherman and Mr. Dutton broke through along the side of one of the islands. In the process of getting through, they reached the shore. Where they went in was a depth of twenty feet. Mr. Dutton's boat found on yesterday what she bath in the St. John on the verge of December 1st. Like Fred, she broke through also, but was near the shore, and it was more unpleasant than dangerous. It is always unsafe to skate near the bridge and pier, and parties who try these places run a great risk. Mr. Gray on the St. Mary's, but it is serious business.

EX-M. P. P. STREVESS of the Montreal Times the noted victim of the "apophthegmatic" is being seized up by the press over his attempt to have revenge for the exposure of his "yellow value" expedition of last winter to Northumberland and Fredericton. The Sussex Record (Conservative) says:—

"We regret that the Montreal Times has itself so much in the esteem of its many friends and well-wishers as to make the late exposure of its editor's expedition to the 'Yellow Value' in that matter so entirely foreign to the interests of the paper, and as a matter of fact, has been left alone. We do not believe in these personal attacks, and generally they come home to roost.

THE editor of the Times who simply to have a political feud, maliciously published a letter charging Mr. H. H. McClelland, a former editor of the Transcript, as assistant superintendent of the Presbyterian Sunday School in Montreal, with criminal misfeasance in having little girls at a Sunday School picnic, and with sending money to the same school, and who by this hour has never published a word of apology or retraction, is hardly to be surprised if he is the subject of a severe and justly merited attack in any criticism he may receive at the hands of the press. For a journalist who has so unscrupulously libeled and slandered every journalist or political opponent with mild doses of criticism with many very faces.

A Cold Wave. Winter began business on time. Autumn served its time faithfully, until 20th November, but as soon as 1st Dec. came cold weather was on hand. It seemed to drop suddenly out of space and begin getting in its work. At Montreal, the thermometer indicated 15° below zero, it was the same at Fredericton, it was 10° below at St. Stephen, at Newcastle it was 12° below and at Chatham 10° below. The cold wave made her early trip on Monday morning, returning to Chatham about 10.30 a. m. She at once proceeded to her winter berth in the Snow-bill, being barely reaching it in time to save what was left of it. Twenty hours later a half dozen more had followed across the river on firm ice. Yesterday, horses were going about on the ice.

Conservation of the Church of St. Mark, Nelson, N. B. The new church lately erected in Nelson near the bridge crossing the Southwest Miramichi was consecrated on Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock. The Lord Bishop, Coadjutor, Dr. Kingston, accompanied by Mrs. Kingston, arrived in Newcastle on Saturday evening and was driven to the new church on Sunday before the hour of service. The Rev. Canon Forsyth, Rival Dean, was also present with the Rector of Newcastle and Nelson, the Rev. J. H. S. Sweet, Rev. Archibald, Esq., Chatham, Esq., M. P., Hon. Judge Wilkinson, Chas. S. Park, Esq., and other members of the Chatham congregation.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

to take the position.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

to take the position.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

to take the position.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one.

He also put before the desirability of filling one of the offices of the Crown in Ireland by a legal member.

I told him, as I was at the time, that I could not agree to the proposal of his member, but that I would do my best to get the Irish people to believe that the declaration I had made to them in Cork in 1880 was a true and honorable one, and that I would