WOMAN'S SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.

12 TWELVE FAVORITE RECIPES.

Tomato Bouillon with Oysters—One can tomatoes, one and one-half quarts of bouillon, one tablespoonful of chopped onion, one bay-leaf, and cloves, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of celery, one-half teaspoonful of peppercorns, one pint of oysters.

Mix the ingredients except the oysters, bring to a boiling point, and let simmer twenty minutes. Strain, cool, and clear. Add the parboiled oysters, and serve in bouillon-cups, with small croûtons.

Bouillon—Five pounds of lean beef from the middle of the round, two pounds of marrow-bone, three-quarts of cold water, one teaspoonful of pepper, one bay-leaf, and cloves, one-fourth of a cupful each of carrot, turnip, onion and celery, all cut in dice.

Wipe the meat with a piece of cheesecloth wrung out of cold water, and cut in halves lengthwise. Add an equal quantity of shredded fresh pineapple, apples pared, cored, and cut in small pieces, and celery cut in small pieces, and fourth the quantity of Brazil nuts cut in pieces. Mix thoroughly, season with lemon juice, and moisten with mayonnaise dressing. Trim saltines on ends so that when put together they will make squares. Put four crackers in a shallow pan, and place the mixture in place with a narrow border to form a small cake. Insert in each case a nest of lettuce leaves, and then fill with the salad mixture. Garnish with green leaves and red berries.

Chocolate Pudding—One fourth of a cupful of butter, one cupful of sugar, yolks of two eggs, one-half cupful of milk, one and three-eighths cupfuls of flour, three teaspoonfuls of baking powder, whites of two eggs, one and one-third cupfuls of egg whites, one-eighth of a teaspoonful of salt, one fourth of a teaspoonful of vanilla.

Cream the butter, and add half the sugar gradually, continuing to beat meanwhile. Beat the yolks of the eggs until thick, and add the remaining sugar gradually. Combine the mixtures, and add the milk alternately with the flour mixed and sifted with the baking powder and salt; then add the whites of the eggs beaten until stiff, melted chocolate, and vanilla. Bake in a buttered angel-cake pan; then remove from the pan, cool slightly, and place on a serving dish.

Normandy Sauce—Cook the skin and bones of the fish with three slices of carrot, one slice of onion, a sprig of parsley, a bit of bay-leaf, one-fourth teaspoonful of peppercorns and two cupfuls of cold water for thirty minutes, then strain; this should make a quart of liquid. Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter in a large tin, add a cupful of flour, and add gradually the fish stock; then add one-third of a cupful of heavy cream and the yolks of two eggs. Season with salt, pepper and cayenne.

Braised Ox Tongues—Cut two ox tails at the joints and parboil for ten minutes. Wash thoroughly, and saute in butter (to which one small sliced onion has been added) until well browned. Add one-fourth of a cupful of water, two cupfuls each of brown stock, water, salt and tomatoes, one teaspoonful of salt and one-fourth of a teaspoonful of pepper. Turn into an earthen dish, cover, and cook slowly three hours and thirty minutes. Remove the ox tails, and the sauce to the oven. Cut carrot and turnip, using a vegetable-corer, in pieces one inch long and about as large around as a nut. Grate the eggs, and add the yolks of the eggs to the mixture, and stir until well mixed; then add the grated cheese. As soon as the cheese melts remove from the fire, fold in the cheese cubes, and season with salt, pepper and cayenne. Spread in a shallow pan, and cool. Shape, dip first in crumbs, then in egg, and then in crumbs again. Fry in deep fat, and drain on brown paper. Arrange on a serving-dish, and insert a small paper roll in the top of each croquette.

Raised Hominy Muffins—One cupful of warm cooked hominy, one-fourth of a cupful of butter, one cupful of scalded milk, three tablespoonfuls of sugar, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one-fourth of a yeast-cake, one-fourth of a cupful of lukewarm water, three and one-fourth cupfuls of flour.

Mix the hominy, butter, milk, sugar and salt together. When lukewarm water and flour. Beat thoroughly, cover, and let rise over night. In the morning cut down, fill hot buttered gem pans two-thirds full, let rise, and bake in a moderate oven.

TREASURES THAT DAVY JONES GUARDS. Untold Wealth Lies at Bottom of Sea Where No Man Can Touch It.

When Davy Jones once gets treasures of gold safely into his locker he guards them more jealously than any merely human miser.

One might fill volumes with stories of these rainbow chasers, many of them startling and dramatic. No one has ever deked the San Pedro, the five decked Spanish galleon which sank in the Margarita Channel off the Central American coast.

In all, the treasures of the San Pedro were valued at $13,500,000. Syndicate after syndicate was formed to rescue these riches from Davy Jones' clutches.

Not many years after the Huzzar disappeared under the water of an American river the sloop-of-war De Brask went to the bottom in a gale off the Delaware capes, taking with her a rich spoil of two captured Spanish galleons laden with gold and gems of fabulous value.

Occasionally, when Davy Jones is in an amiable mood, he will release part of his booty, but he takes care to clutch what remains more tightly still.
