

Heroism of Men in Khaki Theme of Pastors

pressive manner and speaking with experience as both a soldier and a clergyman he was able to present to his hearers the duty of the day in a most telling way. Major Pincombe expressed the opinion that Germany aims at the possession of Canada and he also feels that the present is the critical period of the struggle. The time is now at hand when added strength to one side or the other may have a very important influence in changing the whole aspect of the war. Major Pincombe's quotations, scriptural and otherwise, were most appropriate and coupled with an unusual degree of eloquence made his address a stirring one. The eulogy of the men overseas and in service at home was delivered by Rev. W. H. Barraclough, who added the personal element of the service in his remarks with regard to the men from Centenary.

St. Stephens

An honor roll containing fifty-five names and draped with the national flag was hung in a conspicuous place during the patriotic service at St. Stephens. The pastor, Rev. Gordon Dickie, read the list of names of those who had enlisted from the church, one of whom died on the battlefield. After intercessory prayer the pastor preached a sermon on life after death. He spoke of the great love that prompted a man to lay down his life for his country and expressed the belief that those who have gone before are still in communication with us. Their spirits, he thought, watch over us.

The singing of the national anthem concluded the service, which was largely attended.

Zion Methodist

The memorial services in Zion Methodist church were attended by large congregations, the pastor, Rev. J. B. Champion, presiding. The text in the evening was "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. The church was well decorated with the flags of the allies, the platform being draped in purple and black. The choir furnished special music including the anthem "Not Unknown." Great interest was taken in the service.

Victoria Street United Baptist

There were large congregations throughout the day and deep interest was shown in the services which were appropriate for the occasion. The pastor, Rev. B. H. Nobles, gave the addresses, both morning and evening. The evening subject was Man's call to God and God's call to men. The choir furnished special music.

Portland Methodist

The address in the evening was given by the pastor, Rev. T. J. Delstad, who referred in feeling terms to those who had gone from the church to fight for the good cause. The honor roll was read over by the recording steward, A. C. Powers. This shows the names of seventy-two men who had been connected with the church and it was pointed out that one family had given four sons, another three, and eight families two each. The names include four officers and eighteen non-commissioned officers. Two of the men, Ellsworth Reed and Robert Tait had already given their lives on the field of battle. The services were impressive throughout and included special music by the choir. There was a very large congregation both morning and evening.

Ludlow Street Baptist

Rev. W. R. Robinson based his remarks on "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friend." The love here spoken of is the kind shown by the men who are in France fighting for principle. Some have already laid down their lives and others are preparing to do so to prevent the Hun from repeating in Canada the dastardly work done in Belgium. After a year and a half of effort of the Teuton races fully equipped and organized, although it is true they have their flag floating over parts of France, Russia and Belgium, they have not succeeded as yet in getting any of the men from Canada opposed to them ever permit them as victors to set foot on British soil.

Trinity Church

A very large congregation attended historic Trinity last evening. A feature of the solemn evening was the elaborate musical program which included the hymn, "God Thine Artillery," sung to the tune of the national anthem of Russia. Before the service Organist James A. Ford played the national anthems of the allied nations.

Special psalms were sung and the lessons were especially selected for the occasion. The Magnificat and the Nunc Dimittis were by Morley. The choir also sang Sir Arthur Sullivan's anthem, "O Love the Lord All Ye His Saints."

Immediately after the service Organist Ford played the splendid Imperial March. All of the music was of a high order.

The preacher of the evening was His Lordship the Bishop of Fredericton. The Bishop spoke of the sacrifices which had been made by the Empire and especially by the men of Canada at the front. His sermon was largely of a patriotic nature and in addition to a eulogy of those who had shed their blood for the Entente Allies he spoke in praise of those now at the front and under enlistment in England and Canada.

Trinity parish has seventy-four men on its honor roll, including Lieut. Col. McAvity and many officers of the 26th.

NOW THOUGHT THAT

SCHR. WESTMINSTER MAY YET BE FLOATED

Late advices from the scene of the stranding of the large three-masted schooner Winchester, from this port, are to the effect that the vessel may be saved. Capt. J. A. Dickson and crew are again on board the schooner, and it is hoped that by taking off part of her cargo of lumber she can be floated, although her bottom is considerably damaged.

The Winchester struck near Beacon Point, not far from Newport, N. B., during rough weather Thursday. As the crew was in danger the men were taken off by the coast guard cutter Acushnet. On the following day the crew returned aboard their vessel. The Winchester's agent in St. John is J. Willard Smith. The cargo was shipped by F. E. Sayre & Co., Ltd., of this city.

SHIRTS FOR B. SQUADRON C. M. R. TO BE SENT

Royal Standard Chapter I.O.E., in charge of project—A letter from Lieut. Everett.

At the monthly meeting of "The Royal Standard Chapter" I. O. E. E., at the residence of Mrs. F. A. Peters and adjourned to Mrs. W. R. McKean's Douglas avenue, the report, Mrs. E. A. Smith, read a letter received by her from "Somewhere in Belgium," written by her nephew, Lieut. H. S. Everett, of "B" Squadron, 6th C. M. R. The following extract speaks for itself:

"I suppose you are very busy with work for the soldiers, and I feel I should not burden you with more; but there is one thing our men need now, and more as the weather grows colder, and that is undershirts. You are the best one for me to appeal to in this matter. Nearly all the men of 'B' Squadron come from New Brunswick, and a great many from St. John, and I am sure the people of the city and all who have relatives and friends in our squadron would like to do something to assure the comfort of the men during this trying winter. Could you, and would you, start a wintered campaign to send 150 heavy woolen undershirts, sizes thirty-eight to forty-four."

It was agreed to send the desired garments at once, the chapter voting a generous amount towards the purchase, and feeling assured that there would be many who would gladly assist.

An interesting feature of the meeting was a statement that a young man, Russell Carmichael, for whom the chapter provided a wooden leg last winter, was now able to walk without crutches, and his general conduct so wonderfully improved that he had volunteered for active service. On being asked, owing to his artificial limb, he went to work in a munitions factory.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK

CROSS, FEVERISH

When constipated or bilious, give California Syrup of Figs.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the food, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

An End to the Curse Of Wearing Worthless Trusses

No More Rupture Troubles
60 Days Trial To Prove It

You Don't Have to Risk a Penny Here is something absolutely guaranteed to keep your rupture from coming out.

And you can try it sixty days—make a thorough prove-it-to-you test—without having to risk a penny. If it doesn't hold—if it doesn't keep your rupture from bothering you in any way—then it won't cost you a single cent.

The Only Thing Good Enough To Stand Such A Test You know as well as we that you can't tell anything about a truss of anything else for rupture merely by trying it on. That's the worst of going to a druggist or local truss fitter.

A truss or so-called "appliance" may seem alright when you first put it on, and afterwards prove utterly worthless.

The only way in the world you can make sure of exactly what you're getting is by a day-after-day test. And our guaranteed rupture holder—the famous Cluthe—is the only thing good enough to stand such a long and thorough test.

Something Nothing Else Does. The Cluthe is so utterly different from anything else for rupture that it has received eighteen separate patents.

It provides the only way ever discovered for overcoming the weakness which is the real cause of rupture. Just how it does that—entirely automatically—is all explained in the free book.

Will Save You From Operation. The Cluthe has so thoroughly proved its merits that physicians in all parts of the world and surgeons in the U. S. Army and Navy now recommend it instead of advising operation. It has brought complete recovery in hundreds of cases after operation has proved a failure.

No Belt or Leg Straps to Annoy You That's why people who have tried it say it is as comfortable as their clothing. It is water-proof—will hold in the bath. Easily kept clean.

Get World's Greatest Rupture Book Don't send any money—just write for our free book and find out everything you want to know.

Full of facts never before put in print. Cloth-bound—96 pages—20 separate articles and 25 photographic illustrations. Will save you from being fooled and save you from wasting money.

Explains why elastic and spring trusses are a wicked crime—why they are the rupture man's worst enemy—why the law should stop their sale.

Expose the humbug "appliances," "methods," "plasters," etc.

Show why operation is often a needless gamble with death, and why, if a man manages to get well from the operation, he often has to keep on wearing a truss.

And it tells all about the Cluthe and how you can try it sixty days, and how little it costs if you keep it. Gives endorsements of over 5,000 people.

Better write for the book today—it tells things you could never find out by going to doctors or druggists. Simply use the coupon or say in a letter or postal, "Send me the book."

SATURDAY'S BRIEF SESSION MARKET

Due partly to belief that Germany has been virtually change nominal—Cash gain

New York, Jan. 9.—A belief that the long existing controversy between Washington and Berlin has been virtually settled contributed, in a great measure, to the strength and activity of today's short session, although some of the advances and much of the first half hour of yesterday's buying movement was renewed on a liberal scale, the short interest scrambling hastily to cover.

Leaders of the movement included Mexican Petroleum, American Can, American Smelting, Anaconda Copper, Mercantile Marine Preferred, and United States Steel. The latter scored a further substantial advance, adding more of the mid-week's decline, but was subjected to pressure later, closing unchanged at 87-1/2.

Some of the more prominent speculators were five to eight points over yesterday's minimum, and the railway division was firm but conspicuously quiet.

Labor troubles and the riot in the Middle West emboldened the professional element to further short selling in the final hour, the market closing
