FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLE.

ARTICLE VII.—As the union of Christians of various denominations, in carrying on this great work, is a most desirable object; so, to prevent, if possible, any cause of future dissension,—it is declared to be a fundamental principle of the Canada Foreign Missionary Society, that its design is not to send any particular form of Church order and government, about which there may be difference of opinion among serious persons, but the glorious Gospel of the Blessed God, to the heathen; and that it shall be left, as it ought to be left, to the minds of those persons whom God may call from among them into the fellowship of his Son, to assume for themselves such form of Evangelical Church government, as to them may appear most agreeable to the Word of God.
