CORNWALL, }
February, 21st, 1872. }

Your Credential Committee beg leave to make a Supplementary Report as follows:

Bro. H. S. Raymour, Master, 25.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ANDREW BRODER,
T. E. YOUNG,
D. EWING.

Proposed by Bro. David Marshall, seconded by Bro. G. Mattice,

That by a circular, dated January 25th, 1871, the Treasurer of the M. W. G. L. of B. A., stated that the M. W. Grand Lodge in June, 1871, reduced its claim on Provincial Grand Lodges for dues to 50 cents a year for each Private Lodge, and to take effect from and after 21st February, 1869. This will reduce the indebtedness of Western Ontario from $758 to $270, and Eastern Ontario from $1,247 to $787.50. If all balances due the M. W. Grand Lodge are not paid in full, the Grand Treasurer will ask the Grand Lodge at its next session to repeal this resolution. Provincial Grand Lodges, under this resolution, should pay their own printing and pay for Constitutions, Reports, Rituals, &c.,

Be it Resolved,—That this Grand Lodge considers that is capable of conducting the business of the Grand Lodge without the interference, by circular or otherwise, from the Grand Treasurer of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge holding out threats to this Right Worshipful Grand Lodge.—Lost.

Proposed by Bro. Thos. Robinson, seconded by Bro. Thos. McMahon,

That this Grand Lodge, having learned with regret, of the loss by fire of L. O. Lodge, No. 274, in Belleville, together with all the property belonging to Lodges 274 and 727,

Be it therefore Resolved,—That warrants be re-issued to these Lodges free of charge.
