

expected. Your Committee have, however, through a feeling of respect for Her Majesty's Commissioner, refrained from commenting on his report, in the terms which they honestly avow they think it merits, confident that their forbearance will meet the desires of your Honourable House, and be equally in accordance with the wishes of the family compact hereinbefore mentioned.

All which is respectfully submitted,

J. S. MACAULAY,

- CHAIRMAN.

COMMITTEE ROOM,

Legislative Council,

11th day of May, 1839.
