

mentioned teacher shall, nevertheless, be entitled to receive the proportion of his salary up to the time of his dismissal.

Empowers clergymen &c. to visit public schools.

LXI. All clergymen, judges, magistrates and members of the Legislature, shall have power to visit any public school under this Act, and to inquire into its management, or any other object connected with its prosperity; and may note down in a visitor's book, which shall be kept by every teacher for that purpose, any omission observed in any department, or other remarks relating to the school.

Teacher to keep a journal.

Particulars of such journal.

LXII. Every licensed teacher shall hereafter keep a regular journal of his school, which shall always be kept in the schoolhouse, containing the names and ages, with notes of the progress and attendance of the pupils; and which journal shall at all times be open to the inspection of the school visitor and trustees of said school for the time being, and other persons authorized to visit the same, as in the previous section of this Act mentioned, and also of any member of the Board of Education who may choose to visit any such school; and such journal shall, at the termination of the teacher's engagement, be by him or her forwarded to the Secretary of the Board of Education.

Where schoolhouse has been built and recognized by Board of Education, it shall be illegal for the original owner of the land to interfere with the same.

LXIII. Where any schoolhouse within the meaning of this Act has been or shall hereafter be erected on any site or piece of ground, with the consent of the owner, tenant or occupant of such land, and such site and schoolhouse have also been recognized by the Board of Education as the legal site, and schoolhouse for the district wherein the same are situate, then, and in such case it shall be illegal for the original owner, tenant or occupant of such land, or any person or persons under or in trust for such owner, tenant or occupant, by deed or otherwise, whether registered or unregistered, in any manner to interfere with such site, or schoolhouse thereon erected, or to prevent the free and peaceable possession and use thereof, and access thereto and thereover, by or to the trustees, masters or children, or the inhabitants of the district, or the Board of Education, or others for the purposes of education, unless such interference shall be expressly sanctioned by the terms of any deed, lease, or agreement, given by the owner, tenant, or occupant of, or person entitled to the land on which the house is or shall be erected; and any conveyance or deed of the site heretofore made, or hereafter to be made, shall be ineffectual to pass any estate therein, so as to enable the grantee or releasee, or person to whom the same is conveyed, to interfere with such site, or any schoolhouse thereon, or any of the aforesaid parties, in the free and peaceable use and occupation and possession thereof as aforesaid.
