

CANADIAN COURIER

Parliamentary Library
3683

IN THIS NUMBER

WHAT WOMEN ARE DOING

Considering the Farmer's Wife, by Elizabeth Pollard
Women's Parliaments and Their Works, by the Editor
St. John's Day and the Work of the Red Cross, by Estelle M. Kerr

Five pages devoted to the doings and thinkings of the sex that are now doing more than they ever did in twice the time to help the Country, the Home and the Individual.

A MAN IN A HURRY

By OWEN OLIVER

STOP GAMBLING IN WHEAT

By A MAN FROM MANITOBA

Magazine Literature Distilled, Musical Topics Discussed,
The War Illustrated, Financial Matters in Simple Style
and Another Instalment of Number 70, Berlin

Keep an Eye Open for What This Paper Has to Offer
Next Week by Way of

CELEBRATING THE JUBILEE OF CONFEDERATION

THIRTY short articles by prominent Canadians from coast to coast; articles looking backward and forward—fifty years each way; illustrations by four Canadian artists, including full page cartoons by C. W. Jefferys and J. E. H. Macdonald and a cover drawing by F. Horsman Varley.

COURIER PRESS, Limited, TORONTO

FIVE CENTS

June 23, 1917