COURIER DECENNIAL CAMPAIGN

IN December, 1916, the Canadian Courier will be exactly ten years old. It purposes to celebrate this important event in the manner most fitting to a public journal—by making still wider the bounds of its circulation and influence. This it will partly do by an appeal to present readers.

THE CHRONICLES OF CANADA, as presented in the Courier files, are varied and interesting reading. The resume of Canadian history, as presented week after week—of news, opinions and comment—cannot be duplicated anywhere. Its value is recognized repeatedly by publicists, educators, and librarians. Full sets of the 19 published volumes command good prices. If you have a complete file—hang on to it.

WAR RECORDS.—We have the fact that numbers of people want back copies of the Courier for the sake of a pictorial and editorial review of the great war.

WORLD OUTLOOK.—Recently the Courier has broadened its scope from a review largely of Canadian events only to a survey of world happenings and opinions. This feature is illustrated in all current issues. The increased value of this service is apparent. The Courier thus becomes a more essential literary record in convenient form of the times we live in.

SUBSCRIBERS.—The Courier is of the opinion that the supporters of a journal with such superior aims must belong to the most alert and progressive classes of Canadians. It is perhaps not a surface idea, but it must be apparent that the citizenship of any country is influenced by its journalism. The Courier feels it has a mission to serve in Canadian affairs. It invites the continuance of the old subscriber and the co-operation of the new.

CO-OPERATION.—That's just the word. How can a Courier reader co-operate? By passing along his copy to a friend, by a recommendation to one disposed to recognize and preserve what is vital to our times. You can do more; you can send us names of prospective readers.
