

Hot And Dusty Driving Has Great Rewards

Jim Jonasses, watch in hand, raises the clip-board to start a car off in the Credit Valley Car Club's Auto Cross meet at Inglewood. This was really a field trial, with grass knee-high. Cars raced against the clock on a miniature Mosport circuit.

Bill Smith, Brampton, churns through a tight corner in his Datsun sports car. He was a second place winner with a time of 53.5 seconds.

Don Livingston, Cooksville, concentrates as he maneuvers his Sprite around the tricky course. The site at Inglewood was chosen because it was as far from habitation as possible and the noise and dust would not affect anyone else.

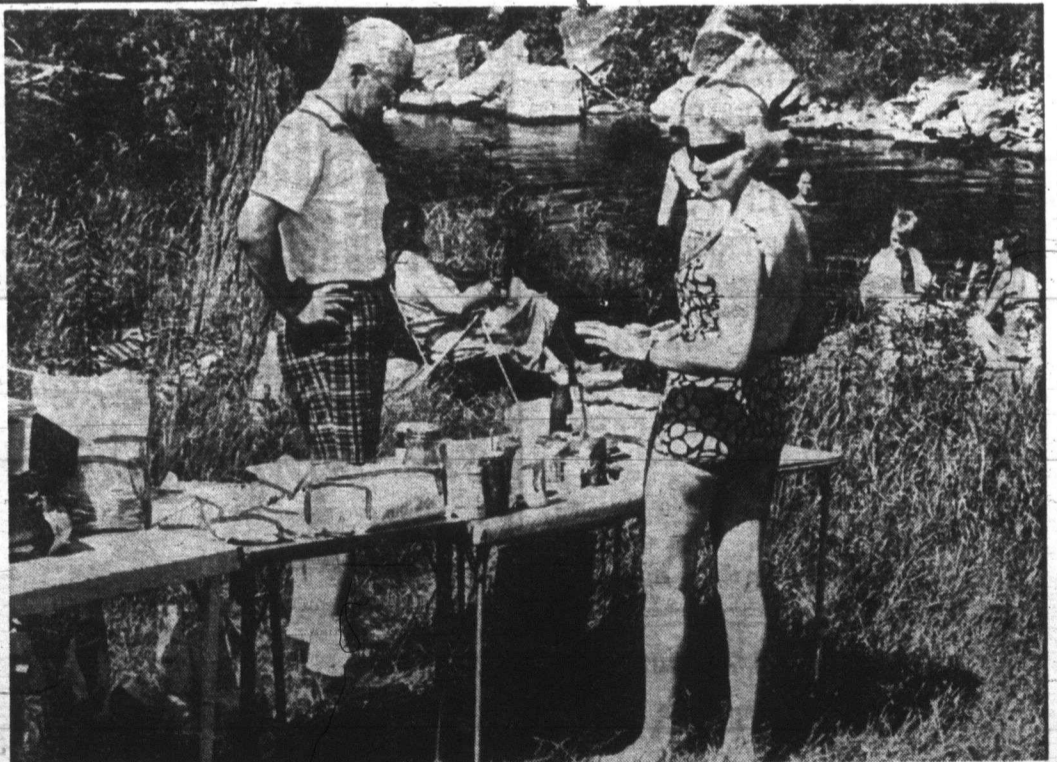

Marion Wohlselagel, is driving this VW fastback to a fourth place position. Several women competed in the Auto Cross. The car is owned by Brian MacKenzie.

Don Boudreau, Streetsville, hollers, "come and get it" as he prepares supper on the barbecue. Everyone was eager for the tantalizing food after a hard day's driving.

President Tom Crooks and his wife Shaena survey the supper table following the day's driving competition. The spot for the barbecue was ideal with a stream nearby to have a refreshing swim to wash the dust of the day off. The drivers sat down to a well prepared supper and cool soft drinks, well earned after their hot day in the driver's seat.
