

Reserve, which as you will observe, is situated on the South East shore of Dawson Bay, and from the Key Maps which will also be found on the training its relative position to the surrounding lands can likewise be ascertained.

In connection with the other points of your letter I beg to state:

(1) As regards the quantity or extent of water which the Department wished to have reserved for the exclusive use of these Indians, it is recommended that the whole of Dawson Bay be reserved for their exclusive use
