

11528
little island more than trains do! To me the north of Eng. is far more beautiful than the South, for the Gynkolie & Westmeland fells & moors are so rugged & fine.
In September I go on a motor journey through Scotland - & if only we can have a little fine weather I'm sure it'll be very interesting. - I scarcely expect to return to Am. this year, but hope to spend the winter in Italy.
I trust you'll bear my thanks in mind (Burr, Shipley & Co.) & let me hear (123 Pall Mall, W.) from you again. Always sincerely S. G. Mata.

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers

Volume 12

PUBLIC ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA