March 25, 1920.

Sir,-

With reference to your letter of the 8th, No. 649- K-3197, Pte. Robt. E. Kipling, No. 821200, 78th Battalion, I beg to say that Mrs. Charlotte Kipling, the widow of the above named soldier, married A.G. Starr, and her present address is Peguis Post Office, Manitoba. The child Robert Kipling was adopted by the woman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Flett, and their address is Peguis Post Office, Man.. The mother of Robert E. Kipling is dead and this boy has been brought up from early childhood by his grandmother, Mrs. George Kipling, who also resides at Peguis.

This woman is old and unable to make her own living. The Department is making representations to the Board of Pension Commissioners with a view to having some sort of pension granted.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
