

Royal Commission you
demanded in the House.
It would seem that the Conservatives are very anxious and
determined that there should be no further inquiry. Of course I do not understand much
but I feel very deeply
for you in the position in which you have been placed. I must have tried you to the

Ms. A. 11.

My dear Willie.
I do not need to tell you how full our hearts have been of sympathy and understanding in these past
days of severe trial for you. I hope you will be able to get the
