

very much delighted when he arranged allow to him to stay up to listen in to it again.
He sat down to the radio on the afternoon so could hold the attention of you even you the child in that length of time what you should know that what you had to say was really worthwhile.
Without you taking a leading part in shaping the meeting the best reason is hope that you will keep in as long as you can. Mr. Young very pleased that Mr. Young present was chosen as the new leader with such a great majority. Mr. Young felt that he would some although but was a bit nervous;
with it was made final;
his speech of acceptance was with you that afternoon; have I said to you when I have been so moved by any the speech. Possibly it was the knowledge that it has more or less a farewell speech on your part but I have so found it was one of the greatest speeches I have ever heard. I felt very much as Mrs. St. Laurent did on Saturday afternoon when she was asked to speak on the platform with her husband. She said that she was afraid to because she might say to because not ashamed to admit that I did! John & I listen in again on Friday night to the report broadcast of your speech. When was
