

Government, for its part, has raised the number of scholarships available for French students from 28 (for the period 1964/65) to 100 (for the period 1965/66). Officials have agreed on the measures to be taken in common to ensure the fair selection of candidates.

The French Government is prepared to extend to Canadian students awarded grants in Canada for study in France the advantages of the French social-security system when an appropriate arrangement between the two governments has been made.

- (b) Professors — France is prepared to receive some Canadian professors at the associate level each year to teach in French universities.

In return, Canadian universities, thanks to the Canadian Government Fellowship Programme, will be able to invite 12 French professors to lecture in Canada for various periods during the year 1965/66, and it is foreseen that more will be invited in 1966/67 in co-operation with the French authorities for various teaching periods.

- (c) Exchange of Language Teachers — France and Canada have agreed to study the possibility of an exchange of language teachers. Approximately 30 teachers of French would be received at Canadian institutions and the same number of Canadian English-speaking teachers would be received in French institutions.
- (d) Equivalence of Diplomas — With the intention of encouraging student exchanges, the French and Canadian authorities have recognized the urgent need for a solution of this problem and have agreed to a study of solutions by appropriate organizations.
- (e) Establishment of a Chair of Canadian Studies in France — The French authorities received with interest a suggestion that a chair of Canadian studies be established at one of the French universities and have undertaken to investigate the possibilities.
- (f) Canadian Travel Scholarships for Outstanding French Students — The French authorities accepted gratefully a Canadian offer of 10 scholarships to allow winners of the French "Concours Général" to travel in Canada during the summer vacation.

II. Cultural Exchanges — Film, Radio and Television

- (a) Films — French authorities will help organize the training of Canadian producers and film technicians in France. The two countries have also agreed to encourage the dissemination of each other's films within their countries.
- (b) Radio and Television — Officials of the ORTF (Office de Radio, Télévision Française) and the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation will meet to examine various means of improving exchanges in the field of radio and television.
- (c) Clearing Houses for Exchange of Visitors — The two countries will study the possibility of establishing secretariats in France and Canada to encourage and facilitate exchanges by groups of industrialists, technicians, union leaders, professors, teachers, students, etc.

III. Exchanges in the Arts

French initiative brings to Canada each year performing arts groups, individual artists and art exhibitions. For the Montreal Universal Exhibition of 1967, the French intend to make a special effort to increase their activities in Canada in this field.
