AN OLD WORK-MATE HONORED.

On the 30th ult., quite a pleasing ttle incident took place in the tores Department of the G.T.R.,

One of the oldest, most genial and best known figures of that part o best known ligures of that part of the establishment, in the person of Mr. Jas. Burns, was about to sever his connection with his comrades af-ter having passed 36 years in their midst, and it was but just that he should be recognized in some tangi-ble way. This took the form of a headsome mantel clock and ornahandsome mantel clock and orna-ment, being a slight token of the es-teem in which he had been held for this lengthy period. It bore the following inscription:

Montreal, June 30, 1908.

England Teaching Babies to Drink

London.—Women rarely are seen drinking in saloons in America, says a staff correspondent of the New York Press. If a man entered a public house—as saloons are called here—and found no women imbibing, he would regard it as an exceptional experience. During the hours when the quenching of bibulous thirsts is pursued with the greatest ardor they fairly swarm in the "pubs." And a surprising number of them are accompanied by babies in arms or children. That is one of the most shock-That is one of the most shock ing features in England's rottenness.

the population is bent in early infancy towards the public house.

The Home Office has been collecting information about the frequenting of public houses by women and children, and the report just published makes melancholy reading. The ceil is worse in London. Twenty-three public houses in the metropolis were kept under observation for twelve hours a day on four days. During that period it was found that no less than 39,351 women and 10.746 children entered them. Of the children many were infants in arms. In the twelve months ending April 30 last, 1058 persons were arrested for being drunk while in charge of children under seven years of age. Of these, 220 were men and 830 women.

CATHOLIC SAILORS' CONCERT.

Last evening's concert was in the hands of Dominion Council No. 465, Knights of Columbus, and proved to be as much an honor to its organizers as it was a pleasure to the kind friends who assisted as spectators. The chair was taken by Mr. E. Doyle, who fulfilled his duties most acceptably. The programme was a fine one, and was carried out to its fullest in every detail.

Protestantism and Art.

Sir Casper Purden Clark, director of the New York Metropolitan Mu-of the New York Metropolitan Museum of Art in a lecture recently delivered in Baltimore, referring to the work of the old masters, said:

"The Reformation put an end to the great period of work in art and literally threw art back several centuries. The "reformers" got into their heads that all beauty was imposed in page 12 brogland the followers of their heads that all beauty was immoral. In England the followers of Martin Luther wrought havoc with priceless works of art. They went through magnificent churches destroying statues and paintings by the hundreds. I don't say this as any brief for the enemies of Puritanism; I simply went in it as a great and terrible by mention it as a great and terrible fact in the history of art. Puritamism may legislate and go to all sorts of lengths to make things ugly, but our inborn love of freedom and the beautiful will aways triumph."

cuit of our Lady.

In a work recently published by the Rev. Pere Delattre, the distinguished scientist of the White Fathers of Africa, he deals with the cultus of the Blessed Virgin in Africa as revealed by archaeological monuments. Father Delattre has been pursuing his scientific researches for the past thirty years; and he has collected a large mass of evidence testifying to the Carthaginan cult for the past thirty years and a mas collected a large mass of evidence testifying to the Carthaginian cult of Mary—bas reliefs of marble and terra cotta, statuettes, leaden im-ages, inscriptions, medals, coins, seals, etc. From these it is shown conclusively that, while the Council of Ephesus in 431 solemnly pro-claimed the divine maternity of Our Lady, a dogma reiterated twenty years later by the Council of Chal-cedon (451), and again confirmed a century later by that of Constanti-nople (553), the Christians of Afnople (553), the Christians of Alrica were multiplying their images of the Blessed Virgin and their vocation to Mary, the mother of God. Archaeology is held in such respect nowadays that Father Delattre's book will probably prove to many non-Catholics a more effective vindication of Our Lady's cult then would a dozen tomes o theology. would a dozen tomes o theolo-
