

AT THE NICKEL TO-DAY!

A Big War Feature, in 2 Reels---2.
"The Retreat From Moscow."

The historical retreat of Napoleon's army from Moscow in 1812. Reconstructed with the aid of ten thousand of the Imperial Russian Army. Every phase of the epoch-making incident is shown with an accuracy which make this production one of the most remarkable motion pictures ever produced. The burning of Moscow after Napoleon's arrival, and the pathetic plight of the retreating army are re-enacted in all the grim tragedy of war. The scenes are photographed on the actual sights, and the ensembles were modeled after the famous paintings by Verestchaguine.

COLLEGE BOYS LOSE BY A NARROW MARGIN.

Victorias Won the Hockey Match Last Night by One Goal Score, 5-4.

The teams evenly matched began to show their very best of play when Strong "forgot" the rules, had to retire to keep the Judge's company for two minutes.

Pinsent now took control and with a fine run succeeded in landing No. 3 for his team.

The puck being centered, Parsons captured it and made a splendid dash down the rink, but Rendell soon stopped him however.

The rules of hockey not allowing fouling, Rendell was given a rest of 4 minutes.

The teams now seemed to be tired out owing to the heavy ice. Some long shots were taken by both sides until Morison changed this style of play and paid a visit to Hunt. Nix was not ready for the puck and it landed behind, making the game even again—score 3-3.

Checkmates.

The puck was no sooner on the move again when Winter scored and a minute after Shortall equalized again, leaving both teams with four goals each.

Play now was all over the rink and it looked as if another play off would have to take place when Shortall landed the rubber safely behind Hunt scoring No. 5.

The Feildians now tried hard to equalize but were unable, and the gong sounded for full time, leaving the Vics' one goal better than their opponents.

Notes on the Game.

The two Hunts in goal played a splendid game each. Nix, seeing he was the senior decided to give Cecil the credit for being the better man. But it is a "toss up," both are about even. It is not often that brother plays against brother in goal. A few evenings ago we saw the Messrs. Shortall pitted against each other and a splendid display they gave. The Hunt boys are doughty little fellows, who are keeping goal very creditably.

White, Winter and Parnell played a splendid combination game.

Strong was in his usual good form and played a rattling game. "Butler" as he is better known plays a hard game from start to finish and will make a fine Cover Point for playing against the visiting team.

Brien for the Vics plays a good game but is "off side" too often which interrupts the game a lot. Fred does good, however, and can take all "that's a-comin' to him."

Shortall worked hard and did some very useful work.

Parsons and Morison can always be relied upon for a fast game, and last night they did not disappoint their friends.

Quite a number of our hockeyists have yet to learn that team work, not individual play, counts these days. They seem to hold on to the rubber as if it were tied to their sticks instead of playing together in effective combination. Occasionally individual play counts but the team whose forwards combine most usually come out victorious.
