FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 1914

inese Gove ne Kind of the Empress of Ireland Disaster

OUEBEC, June 18 .- The Governr Lord Strathcona left for the spot in the St. Lawpuposite St. Luce where moress rests under ge Through the kindness Admiralty, the vess and three naval divers from ssex, and there was also anadian Salvage Ser has been employed by Pacific Railway to brin of the expedition, a antain Walsh.marine sur the company, is the bodies and the mails Government stean e fitted out with steam ai is and all the equipment for deep-sea diving. It ed that to-day the divers ready to descend and explore th

KELVIN

[From Our Own Correspondent] everal from here attended the Brantford on Friday last. are sorry to report the ser i Mr. Hugh McDougall e for his recovery soon. Irs. Wilcox, the guest of Andrews on Thursday. heavy rain on Sunday night w some of the farmers on with their corn planting Urs Burton, Wilsonville, was g her parents here one day la

Mr. James O'Connell of Muir, wa his section on business on Thu few friends were calling on M Wood one day last week, Davis of Otterville here one day last week Irs. William Thompson spent Su win Mrs. John Andrews. Mrs. Rev. Hackett and childre were visiting friends in Scotland few days iss, week.

prands of Wine. eur" Champagne. " Port. Pelee" Hock and Claret.

FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 1914

THE RETURN The True Source OF TARZAN is, and must be, good health. Sallow skin and face blemishes By EDGAR RICE are usually caused by the BURROUGHS presence of impurities in the ght 1913 by W. G. Chapman.

Strong and her mother were ve under the strain of almost apprehension of the attacks e beasts, nor were they quite ccept so readily as the others ry that Jane. Clayton and M. had been picked up safely. Porter's Esmeralda was in a state of tears at the cruel ch had separated her from her honey.' Tennington's great hearted ture never deserted him for a He was still the jovial host. always for the comfort and e of his guests. With the men yacht he remained the just but mmander. There was never nore question in the jungle than had been on board the Lady e as to who was the final authorin all questions of importance and all emergencies requiring cool and telligent leadership.

Could this well organized and com ratively secure party of castaways ve seen the ragged, fear haunted a few miles south of them they scarcely have recognized in m the formerly immaculate memof the little company that had to kiss her in thanksgiving. ughed and played upon the Lady Gently the girl nushed him away. Please do not do that, William." she Clayton and M. Thuran were alsaid. "I have lived a thousand years" nost naked, so torn had their clothes in the past brief moments. The last een by the thorn bushes and tangled few seconds of my life have taught me tion of the matted jungle through that it would be hideous to attempt which they had been compelled to force further to deceive myself and you, or heir way in search of their ever more to entertain for an instant longer the difficult food supply. possibility of ever becoming your wife. Jane Porter had, of course, not been should we regain civilization." "Why, Jane," he cried, "what do jected to these strennous expeditions but her apparel was, nevertheyou mean? What has our providential rescue to do with altering your feelings less, in a sad state of disrepair. Clayton, for lack of any better occutoward me? You are but unstrungtomorrow you will be yourself again.' ation, had carefully saved the skin of every animal they had killed. By "I am more nearly myself this min ive garment, so that. with their bare legs and heavily bearded faces, they ooked not unlike reincarnations of two

Nearly two months of this existence

ad passed when the first great calam-befell them. Thuran, down with man, cunning and crafty, crept an and mangy lion. For three days ancient thews and sinews had ved insufficient for the task of pro-ding his cavernous belly with meat

At last he had found nature's weakest

Jane saw the lion, but so frozen with ror was she that she could utter n and most defenseless creature.

ace. Thuran acted like one.

historic progenitors of the human stretching them upon the stems of ute than I have been for over a year.' trees and diligently scraping them, he she replied. "The thing that has just had managed to save them in a fair | happened has again forced to my memory the fact that the bravest man condition, and now that his clothes were threatening to cover his nakedthat ever lived honored me with his ness no longer, he commenced to fashlove. Until it was too late I did not realize that I returned it, and so I ion a rude garment of them, using a sent him away. He is dead now, and arp thorn for a needle and bits of

I shall never marry. Do you undertough grass and animal tendons in lieu stand me?" "Yes," he answered, with bowed The result when completed was head, his face mantling with the flush eveless garment which fell nearly to of shame. his knees. Later Thuran also found it And it was the next day that the ecessary to construct a similar primigreat calamity befell.

CHAPTER XXIV.

of Beauty

blood-impurities which also cause headache, backache, languor, nervousness and depres-sion of spirits. If, at times, when there is need you will use

BEECHAM'S

you will find yourself better in every way. With purified every way. With purified blood, you will improve digestion, sleep more restfully and your nerves will be quieter.

You will recover the charm of sparkling eyes, a spotless com-plexion, rosy lips and vivacious spirits. Good for all the fam-ily, Beecham's Pills especially

Help Women

To Good Health

Sold everywhere. In boxes, 25 cents,

The largest sale of any medicine. The direction with every box point the way to good health.

ad against his shoulder, he

The Treasure Vaults of Opar. T was quite dark before La, the high priestess, returned to the Chamber of the Dead with food and drink for Tarzan. She bore attack of jungle fever, lay in the light, feeling with her hands along lter among the branches of their crumbling walls until she gained e of refuge. Clayton had been into the chamber. Through the stone gratjungle a few hundred yards in ing above a tropic moon served dimly irch of food. As he returned Jane orter walked to meet him. Behind to illuminate the interior. "They are furious," were her first words. "Never before has a human sacrifice escaped the altar. Already fifty have gone forth to track you Cown. They have searched the temple "I save this single room." Why do they fear to come here?"

"It is the Chamber of the Dead carefully around close to the wall. No, Here the dead return to worship. See this ancient altar? It is here that the he could not be mistaken! He paused before the center of the wall opposite dead sacrifice the living if they find a the door. For a moment he stood quite victim here. That is the reason out motionless, then he moved a few feet people shun this chamber. Were one to one side. Again he returned, only enter he knows that the waiting to move a few feet to the other side. dead would seize him for their sacri There was no doubt of it! A distinct draft of fresh air was blowing into the chamber through the interstives of the "I am high priestess. I alone am safe from the dead. It is I who at rare nowhere else. intervals bring them a human sacrifice Tarzan tested several pieces of the from the world above. I alone may granite which made up the wall at this enter here in safety. I had difficulty pot and finally was rewarded by findin eluding their vigilance but now in ing one which lifted out readily. It bringing you this morsel of food. To was about ten inches wide, with a face' attempt to repeat the thing daily some 3 by 6 inches showing within the would be the height of folly. Come. chamber. One by one the ape-man Let us see how far we may go toward lifted out similarly shaped stones. The wall at this point was constructed en-She led him back to the chamber betirely, it seemed, of these almost perneath the altar room. Here she turnfect slabs. In a short time he had re ed into one of the several corridors moved some dozen, when he reached leading from it. In the darkness Tarin to test the next layer of masonry. zan could not see which one. For ten the masonry he had removed, as far as his long arm could reach. It was a matter of but a few minutes to remove enough of the wall to permit his body to pass through the perture. Directly ahead of him he hought that he discerned a faint glow, scarcely more than a less impenetrable darkness.' Cautionsly he moved for-ward on hands and knees until at about fifteen feet, or the average hickness of the foundation walls, the foor ended abruptly in a sudden drop. As far out as he could reach he felt othing, nor could he find the bottom of the black abyss that yawned before him, though, clinging to the edge of the floor, he lowered his body into the darkness to its full length.

be safe here until tomorrow thority who tells us that meat forms Stedman over Sunday .. minutes they groped slowly along a winding passage until at length they came to a closed door. Here he heard gish and weaken, then you suffer with her fumbling with a key, and presenty came the sound of a metal bolt grating against metal. The door swung in on scraping hinges, and they entered. "You will be safe here until tomorrow night," she said. Then she went out and, closing the door, locked it behind her. Where Tarzan stood it was dark as night," she said.

Brebus: Not even his trained eyes could penetrate the utter blackness. Cautiously he moved forward until his outstretched hand touched a wall, then, very slowly, he traveled around the four walls of the chamber.

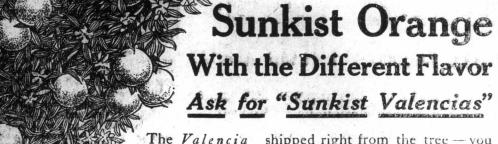

"But you?" he asked.

liberty before I must return."

Apparently it was about twenty feet square. The floor was of concrete, the walls of the dry masonry that marked the method of construction above ground. Small pieces of granite of various sizes were ingeniously laid together without mortar to construct these ancient foundations. The first time around the walls Tarzan thought he detected a strange phenomenon for a room with no windows and but a single door. Again he crept Sunkist is the California Summer Orange -a sweet, juicy, luscious fruit, ripened on the tree.

Easy to peel, and practically

Some are dark in exterior appearance, some lighter in color. But all are a deep red inside and sparkling with healthful juice.

Oranges are picked in California every day in the year, and the Late Valencia is one of the very finest

Glove-picked, tissue-wrapped, ful Rogers Silver-

California Fruit Growers vour ta-Exchange 105 King St., East, Corner Church Toronto, Ont.

The

what you are missing in not getting this brand.

Beautiful Rogers Silver in Exchange for Wrappers

Go buy a dozen of Sunkist Oranges and save the wrappers bearing the Sunkist trademark. Then cend in the coupon below and find out how to exchange the wrappers for beauti-California Fruit Growers ware for Exchange 105 King St., East, Corner Church, Toronto, Ont.

AGE THIRTEEN

THE LEAD A

MUSKOKA LAKES

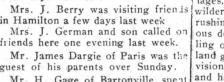

Cainsville where he has secured situation as cement maxer on the The words, "All Aboard for Mus oridges being built there. Mr. and Mrs. F. Vroomar in Hamilton on Monday.

Mr. James Dargie of Paris was the land gems rivalling Mirza's entrancing Mr. H. Gage of Bartonville, spent and handsome illustrated publications free, apply to C. E. Horning, District

Write today for a testing bottle of pay extra for a fancy both price only 75c. (6 cz.) Sa for 50 handkerchiefs. W ED. PINAUD BUILDING NEW YORK oka" is a call that sends a thrill of elightful anticipation through thousands, who, having perfected their plans, are ready to depart for the ton after visiting her parents here All are here fertile plains, peaceful vil-Suaday at his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Vrooman here.

Mr. W. Vansickle was the guest of his sister. Mrs. Braithwaite a few Miss Lizzie Wreaks left for Hamil-

Passenger agent, G. T. R. System Toronto, Ont.

Mountains

Seashore

Lake

of Cathcart were the guests of Mr. A.

URIC ACID IN MEATS

Take a glass of Salts if your Back

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted au-

Mrs. Hurlbert and sons of Buffalo, uric acid which almost paralyzes the were the guests of Mrs. J. Mitchell kidneys in their efforts to expel i rom the blood. They become slugover the week end. Quite a number from here attend-dull misery in the kidney region, ed the circus in Brantford on Friday. harp pains in he back or sick headiche, dizzines, your stomach sours ongue is coated and when the weath- Wednesday afternoon and in the ev- in Hamilton a few days last week ening an entertainment. Mr. Hower is bad you have rheumatic twinges. he urine gets cloudy, full of sediarth and Miss Bloxham of Brantford, nent, the channels often get sore and sang duets and solos; Mr. P. German rritated, obliging you to seek relief of German's School House, sang some guest of his parents over Sunday. excellent selections accompanied by wo or three times during the night. '

To neutralize these irritating acids, his mother, which were well received. releanse the kidneys and flush off, Miss S Hurbert's readings were very he body's urinous waste get four oun- pleasing and well rendered. es of Jad Salts from any pharmacy Brothers supplied the music for the tere; take a tablespoonful in a glass evening and it was splendid. Quize of water before breakfast for a few a lot of amusement and interest took lays and your kidneys will then act place when the quilt which had been fine. This famous salts is made from made by the ladies of the church, the acid of grapes and lemon juice, and which the young ladies had cun-combined with lithia, and has been vassed for, was brought forward. sed for generations to flush and Miss Gladys Stenebaugh was declare. stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to the winner, she having $17.25. Miss ieutralize the acids in urine, so it no H. Card was close second with $15.25 onger irritates, thus ending bladder Second prize was a beautiful box o handkerchiefs. Both young ladies reakness Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot inwere well pleased at the result ure, and makes a delightful efferves- their work. cent lithia-water drink.

Mr. A. Hazell left on Monday fo

41 主任法规谋当 们能能能非相称。

days last week.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist a few days last week. Mrs. J. Berry was visiting frien is hurch held a successful bazaar on Mrs. J. German and son called on

The fixed and terrified gaze o fear widened eyes spoke as plain to Clayton as words. A quick nce behind him revealed the hope ness of their situation. The lion as scarce thirty paces from them, d they were equally as far from the lter. The man was armed with a out stick-as efficacious against a ngry lion, he realized, as a toy popun charged with a tethered cork. "Run, Jane!" cried Clayton. "Quick! ton for the shelter!" But her para-ized muscles refused to respond, and e stood mute and rigid, staring with astly countenance at the living death eping toward them. Clayton could dure the strain no longer. Turning is back upon the beast, he buried his ad in his arms and waited. The girl looked at him in horror Why did he not do something? If he st die, why not die like a man, vely, beating at that terrible face th his puny stick, no matter how fu-it might be? Would Tarzan of Apes have done thus? Would he at least, have gone down to his ath fighting heroically to the last? ow the lion was crouching for the ring that would end their young s beneath cruel, rending, yellow ngs. Jane Porter sank to her knees prayer, closing her eyes to shut out ast hideous instant. econds dragged into minutes, long utes into an eternity, and yet the t did not spring. Clayton was atconscious from the prolonged of fright. His knees trembledat more and he would collapse. e Porter could endure it no longhe opened her eyes. Could she ning? am," she whispered, "look!" on mastered himself sufficient ise his head and turn toward An ejaculation of surprise rom his lips. At their very feet ast lay crumpled in death. A war spear protruded from the ide. It had entered the great ove the right shoulder, and, entirely through the body, had le savage heart. orter had risen to her feet; as urned back to her she stagweakness. He put out his save her from falling, and then

er close to him-pressing her

COMPLETE LINE can be had at the VICTOR STORE of

Take a Victrola with you to the

The Victrola will complete the pleasure of your holidays in Summer Cottage, Hotel or Camp, with entertainment for the idle hours and music for dancing in the evening.

There are Victors and Victrolas in great variety of styles from $20 to $300 (on easy payments if de ired) and ten-inch double-sided Victor Records at 90c for the two selections-at all "His Master's Voice" dealers in every town and city in Canada. Write for complete cataogue listing over 6000 Victor Records.

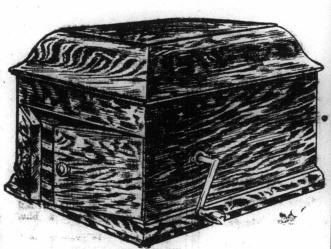

Berliner Gram-o-phone Co. Limited 104 Lenoir Street, Montreal. Dealers in every town and city

CHAS. H. BROWN

The Exclusive Victor Dealer

9 George Street

Drop in and Hear Your Favorite Selection

VICTROLA VIII $52. Golden Oak.

An inexpensive instrument, enclosed and completely self contained, light and portable, yet lacking in none of the essential qualities which make the Victrola the greatest of all musical instruments.

389-414