

THE BEE

R. S. PELTON, PUBLISHER.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1891.

We were surprised the other day to learn that Atwood's postmaster received no rent from the P. O. Department for his office accommodation. Upon enquiry he informed us that the Department allowed no rent to offices not transacting over $800 business yearly. This is surely a new departure in conducting public business, and, to our mind, decidedly unjust. Why should a postmaster furnish public accommodation free, while others receive rent, on the ground that their offices do more than $800 business? It is a conundrum that justice and reason play no part in either propounding or solving.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Kincardine's taxation this year is 22 mills on the dollar.

Crossley and Hunter began revival services in Paris last Sunday.

An ingenious Yankee has invented a machine for producing rain.

A 75 lb. salmon from British Columbia was one of the attractions at the Toronto fair.

Cardinal Manning has been ordered to cease all kind of work on account of age and failing health.

R. Murray, 10th line, East Zorra, has a young apple tree in full bloom. This is a rare occurrence.

The Alliston Herald says that an Agdala farmer has had six hundred bushels of barley from twelve acres of land.

Rev. W. H. Gane, pastor of the Methodist church, Amherstburg, Ont., has been admitted to a course of post-graduate study in Otterbein University, Ohio.

Mr. Montague, London, has a Crawford peach tree, seven years old from the seed, which this year bears a magnificent crop of luscious fruit, the admiration of the whole neighborhood.

Isaac Groff, Waterloo, recently shipped for the old country markets a cargo of 800 sheep, weighing on an average 162 pounds. This was the finest lot of sheep shipped from Montreal for years, and were purchased from farmers in Waterloo, Wellington and Peel.

Mrs. Donald Patience, of East Nisour, received information the other day from Roderick Scott, Solicitor, of 42 Union street, Inverness, Scotland, that through the death of a cousin she had fallen heir to the estate of her uncle, Colin Reid, with whom she lived for a number of years when a little girl.

A "Chicago detective agency" is flooding the country with circulars in which they inform their readers that for $10 they will secure the appointment of the victim as a detective to work at the world's fair. The offer is a swindle pure and simple, and a bit of good advice is, if you have $10 to lose, tie it up in something else.

Captain Hays had a peculiar experience when checking his baggage at Seaford for St. Thomas. A young lady claimed his trunk and wanted it checked for Wingham. She could not be persuaded that she was mistaken until Captain Hays opened the trunk up-packed the contents, and asked the lady to don a "soger" uniform and come to camp.

There is great religious excitement at Sydenham, a village near Kingston. The actions of Free Methodists in the village hall created so much disorder that they were put out of the building. They then went to a vacant field, where a "corset" meeting was held. A bonfire was started and women threw their corsets on the blaze, crying: "We will die as God made us."
