LOVELY MARY DONNELLY.

Oh, lovely Mary Donnelly, it's you I love the best. If fifty girls were round you, I'd hardly see the rest. Be what it may, the time of day, the place be where it will, Sweet looks of Mary Donnelly, they bloom before me still.

Her eyes like mountain water that's flowing on a rock. How clear they are, how dark they are, and they give me many a shock. Her rows warm in sunshine, and wetted with a shower, Could ne'er express the charming lip that has me in its power.

Her nose is straight and handsome, her eyebrows lifted up. Her chin is very neat and pert, and smooth like a china cup. Her hair's the brag of Ireland, so weighty and so fine; It's rolling down upon her neck, and gathered in a twist.

The dance of last Monday night exceeded all before. No pretty girl for miles about was missing from the floor. But Mary kept the belt of love, and O, but she was gay. She danced a jig, she sang a song, that took my heart away.

When she stood up for dancing, her steps were so graceful. The music nearly killed itself to listen to her feet; The fiddler moaned his blindness, he heard her so much praised. But blessed heart, he wasn't deaf, when once her voice was raised.

And evermore I'm whistling or lilt-ling what you sung. Your smile is always in my heart, your name beside my tongue. But you're as many sweethearts as you'd count on both your hands. And for myself there's not a thumb or little finger stands.

Oh, you're the flower of woman-kind in country or in town; The higher I exalt you, the lower I'm cast down. If some great lord should come this way, and see your beauty bright, And you to be his lady, I'd own it was but right.

O, might we live together in a lofty palace hall, Where joyful music rises, and where scarlet curtains hang; O, might we live together in a cottage mean and small, With sods of grass the only roof and mud the only wall.

O lovely Mary Donnelly your beauty's my distress. It's far too beautiful to be mine, but I'll never wish it less. The proudest prince would fit your face, and I am poor and low; But blessings be about you, dear, wherever you may go, —Wm. Allingham.

RED-HOT SERMONS

Clergy of Paterson Preached Them on the Bosschiet Murder.

In an Effort to Rouse the People to Execute Justice on the Mill Girl's Slayer.

Paterson, N. J., Oct. 31.—Nearly every minister in Paterson made reference to the murder of Jennie Bosschiet in his sermon on Sunday. Some of them devoted their entire addresses to the crime and the revelation of degradation it made in the city. The sentiment of the ministers was unanimous that the private rooms in the saloons of Paterson have bred more crime than any other factor.

With singular unanimity the preachers agreed on three remedies for existing evils. They recommended the abolishment of the side and back doors of saloons, closer inspection of drinking places and examination into the character of men making application for licenses to sell liquor, and more watchfulness on the part of parents of growing girls and boys. Probably in no city in the country are more immature girls seen parading the streets at night than in Paterson.

Every church in the city was crowded, and the murder remains the sole topic of conversation. The community is thoroughly aroused, and it does not appear that public sentiment will allow any lack of severity in the treatment of the murderers of the mill girl.

It is certain that any attempt that may be made to cheat justice will be met with the opposition not only of the church people of Paterson, but of all classes of men who lead clean lives, even though not identified with any religious denomination or movement.

The Paterson drug clerk who sold Walter McAllister the "knockout drops" that caused the death of Jennie Bosschiet has been located in New Haven. The police of Paterson refuse to say whether or not they intend to go after him.

THE MARKETS

TORONTO PRODUCE.

Toronto, Oct. 30.—Butter Market is steady and the demand was exceedingly light. Dealers here sell to trade as follows: Dairy tubs, 17 to 18c for choice; large tubs 14 to 15c; creamery tubs and boxes, 20 to 21c; Eggs—Supplies of fresh gathered eggs are fairly large, and will continue so while the mild weather lasts. Held stock and time eggs are very easy and slow. Quotations are as follows: New laid, 15c; fresh, 17 to 18c; held, 15 to 15 1/2; limed, 15 to 15 1/2; and extra 9 to 10 cents.

Poultry—Receipts light, owing to the continued mild weather. Prices unchanged. Quotations are as follows: Chickens, per pair, 35 to 50c; ducks, per pair, 40 to 60c; turkeys, per lb., 8 to 11c; geese, per lb., 6 to 7c. Potatoes—Deliveries plentiful and the market is easy. Dealers are buying car lots here at 25 to 28c per bag and sell out of store at 35 cents per bag.

Dried apples—Dried apples sell at 3 to 3 1/2c; and evaporated at 4 1/2 to 6c. Honey—New crop now in, is in fair demand. Dealers quote from 9 to 12c per lb. for 5, 10, or 50-lb. tins. Comb honey sells at $2.40 to $2.60 per dozen sections.

Baled Hay—Wood steady demand for choice. No. 1 timothy will bring on track, in car lots, $9.50 to $9.75; two ton lots, delivered, sell at $10.50. Baled straw—Car lots are quoted at $5 to $5.50.

Hops—Dull. Sell at about 13 to 14c for Canada '99's.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—Receipts at the Toronto cattle market last week were heavy with a scarcity of choice stock. As present conditions, warm weather, and closing of export season are not favorable to any expansion of demand, trade continues quiet for anything but picked gilt-edge lots. Hogs sell freely, but in all other departments of market, except perhaps for lambs, only sorts that sold at all readily were held at $4.35 to 4.55 per cwt. Receipts Friday were 70 cars, including 900 cattle, 1,500 sheep and lambs, 20 calves and 3,000 hogs.

Export cattle—Demand petering out with the close of the season, nothing but the best being taken; exporters appear to be indifferent about any others. Cables are not very encouraging, doubtless, but some dealers would consider the British farmers; a few loads were taken to-day at prices ranging from $1.25 to $1.62 1/2 per cwt.

Butcher's cattle—Demand confined to supplies for present use, and buyers avoided anything but choice cattle; whole bone of market was soft, especially for lower grades, although no lower prices were quoted; picked lots were held at $4.35 to 4.55 per cwt.; choice at $4 to $4.30; good stock at $3.25 to $4, and common to medium ranged from $2 to $3.25.

Export butchers' demand, with a preference shown for heavy animals; a bunch of export and feeding bulls sold at the level price of $3.40; choice heavy export bulls bring as high as $4.25 and are in demand. Feeders in fair demand, and prices were unchanged without any particular strength; short keep were quoted at $1 to $4.25, but some dealers would consider the latter an exceptional price; heavy were steady at $3.50 to $4 and light at $3 to $3.40.

Stockers' dull for light undesirable stock, of which many were offered; good stock bring $2.50 to $3 per cwt., and there is no prospect of any immediate change in these prices; the lower grades are slow at $1.75 to $2.25 per cwt.

Sheep and lambs—Prices for sheep steady and unchanged; they range from $3.25 to $3.50 per cwt., for export ewes, $2.75 to $3 per cwt. for butchers; and $2.50 to $3.50 each for butchers; lambs have advanced, and are quoted at $3.50 to $4 per cwt., and $2.50 to $3.50 each; they are rather plentiful, but the demand is good.

Hogs—Prices unchanged, at $5.75 for select; $5.50 for lights and fats, and $5.25 for corn-fed; dealers look for lower prices in a day or two; receipts were large, but all sold readily to a good demand.

WEEKLY LIVE STOCK.

East Buffalo, Oct. 29.—Market to-day was a stronger quarter lower on most grades and in some cases considerably lower, and very irregular towards the close. The following included 32 loads of Canadian cattle.

Good to best smooth fat export cattle, desirable quality, $5.25 to $5.40. Butcher's select, $4.75 to $4.90. York State bulls, $2.25 to $2.60. Fat heifers, $3.25 to $3.50. Fat cows, choice to extra, $2.25 to $3.50.

Canada calves, $3.40 to $3.65. Canada calves, $3.90 to $4.05. Canada feeders, $3.60 to $4.25. Michigan heifer, $3.75 to $4.25. Fresh cows, choice to extra, good bags, $4.15 to $5.55.

Good to choice, $3.75 to $4.20. Common and poor cows, $1.80 to $2.00. Heavily fed cows, $3.75 to $4.25. Grassers, $3.25 to $3.75. Sheep and lambs—Lambs, choice to extra, $3.10 to $5.25.

Good to choice, $1.75 to $5. Fair to good, $1.40 to $1.50. Canada lambs, $5.25.

Sheep, choice to extra, $3.75 to $4. Good to choice, $3.50 to $3.75. Ewes, $3.25 to $3.75.

Hogs—Open with a fair demand and continued strength throughout; heavy sold generally at $4.90; mixed, $4.80 to $4.90; Yorkers, $4.75 to $4.80; pigs, $4.65 to $4.90; roughs, $4.30 to $4.40; stags, $3.50 to $3.75.

THE GLASS OF FASHION.

The large, loose waves so essential to the low, fluffy, half parted pompadour style of hairdressing can be made by wetting the hair and tying broad bands of tape around it.

One of the most stylish gloves for wear with light gowns is old fashioned looking and of soft thin kid, with no stitching on the back and only one pearl button.

Apparently this is to be a season of buckles. They are steadily growing larger and more popular and are much more beautiful, from an artistic point of view, than ever before.

Silk applique on net and velvet applique on net or silk are trimmings as popular as lace, and stunning little coats are made of black velvet applique on coarse net and lined with white. Dealers say that women are buying only the thinnest silk and little hose and that even when cold weather comes the heavier hose will go begging. Extravagant foot dressing has become a mania, and no little thing like health or comfort can interfere with it.

Real laces are being used to a remarkable extent. Cluny Arabian, point d'alencien, Irish point, point de flandres and renaissance taking the lead. Batiste laces are also much worn as trimming for cloth or silk, designs copied from rare old laces being embroidered on serge batiste.

A new gray which the French have poetically dubbed winter sky is the most hopeless of the new and fashionable shades. It hasn't even a hint of pink or lilac or cream in it, but is as uncompromisingly hard and dreary as the once popular sine gray. No complexion can stand it, but it will doubtless be worn since it is fashionable.

BREVETTES

PERSONALITIES.

Ex-Secretary John Sherman has sold his property in Mansfield, O., and will live with his daughter, Mrs. J. I. McCallum, in Washington.

General Bell, the new provost marshal of Manila, began his career as a soldier in 1862 as a lieutenant in the Eighty-sixth Ohio volunteers.

Joseph Choate, the American ambassador to England, has a new secretary in the person of W. B. Cutting, a young man who graduated with honors from Harvard last June.

Joseph Jefferson gave $1,000 to the Galveston relief fund. He attended school in Galveston when a mere boy, and his earlier successes in his dramatic career were made in that town.

King Leopold of Belgium, who has been a lifelong patron of gardening, has donated the whole of his real estate in that country for parks and pleasure grounds for the people forever.

It is rumored that the new Duke of Argyll may succeed Lord Cadogan as lord lieutenant of Ireland after the general election. The Duke of Marlborough is mentioned for the same office.

Henri Lasarre de Monzie, who died recently, aged 72, was the author of a book which has been translated into about 50 languages and sold by millions of copies, the "History of Our Lady of Lourdes."

Ernest Hutchinson, a noted pianist, is to be with the Peabody Institute, Baltimore, this year. He is a native of Melbourne, Australia, and belongs to the "infant phenomenon" class of musicians, having played in public in a marvelous manner at the age of 5 years.

The Marquis of Bute is having fitted up in his Rothsay residence, Mount Stuart House, a beautiful Roman Catholic chapel which will be one of the finest examples of religious architecture in Great Britain. The unworked marble alone for pillars and arches will cost $50,000.

Frauline Raffetti, a Viennese, has arrived at Calais for the purpose of endeavoring to swim the channel between the weather suits. She holds some good long distance swimming records, including swims from Stein to Vienna, about 47 miles, and from Vienna to Presburg, 38 miles.

Among the oddest members of the British parliament is Mr. Charrington, who represents the Mile End district of London. He is rarely seen to talk to any one, and will occupy his seat daily for weeks without uttering a sound. Withal he is a most charitable man and is never deaf to a tale of woe.

THE TROTTERING CIRCUIT.

Lord Derby, 2:07, is the fastest green trotter for 1000.

A 2-year-old of the $7,500 Praytel stands 1:41 hands high.

It is said that Masette showed a mile in 2:04 1/2 at Hartford recently.

Early Reaper, 2:09 1/2, the fastest fifth hand trotter for 1900, was sold for $225 as a 2-year-old.

Thomas Lawson has changed the name of his first trotter from Manie W to First Love.

Of the 34 heats paced at Hartford recently 28, or almost 83 per cent, were in 2:10 or better, never before equaled in the history of the trotting turf.

Cardington Girl, 2:20 1/4 at Le Roy, Ill., Aug. 29, is the thirteenth trotter for Bartholomew Wilkes and next to Billy Mack, 2:19 1/2, is his fastest performer.

The 2-year-old filly Alathana, by Al-lerion, 2:09 1/2, took a record of 2:24 1/2 at the Lexington colored fair the other day. She is Alerton's sixth performer for 1900.

Coney, 2:02 1/2, driven by McHenry, equaled the world's pacing wagon record of 2:03 1/2, held by Bumps, which shakes him the champion hobbled pacer to wagon.

Dione, 2:07 1/2; Georgiana, 2:07 1/2, and Bay Star, 2:08, are the fastest three trotting mares of the season and, with Letta, 2:09 1/2, the only trotting mares to beat 2:10 this year.

Bonnie Direct's 1900 record is: Windsor, 2:14 1/2; Detroit, 2:12 1/2; Cleveland, 2:09 1/2; Columbus, 2:07 1/2; Readville, 2:07 1/2; Providence, 2:05 1/2; distanced at Buffalo and Hartford; total winnings, $8,725.—Horseman.

APHORISMS.

Never think any portion of time too short to be employed.—Lord Chesterfield.

The haughty are always the victims of their own rash conclusions.—Le Sage.

Lie not, neither to thyself nor man nor God. It is for cowards to lie.—Herbert.

There is one body that knows more than any body, and that is everybody.—Talleyrand.

Unbecoming forwardness oftener proceeds from ignorance than impudence.—Greville.

The earnestness of life is the only passport to the satisfaction of life.—Theodore Parker.

Speaking much is a sign of vanity, for he that is lavish in words is a niggard indeed.—Sir W. Raleigh.

Most of the critical things in life which become the starting points of human destiny are little things.—R. Smith.

Every evil to which we do not succumb is a benefactor. We gain the strength of the temptation we resist.—Emerson.

Chums.

The young couple always together before marriage rarely keep up this happy intimacy as man and wife. They are not tired of each other, but the young wife finds herself weak and languid, with no inclination for exercise. And thus begins a division of pursuits and interests which often ends in divided lives. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong. It stops the drains which undermine the strength, cures "female weakness," nourishes the nerves and gives vigor to the whole body.

There is neither opium, cocaine or other narcotic in "Favorite Prescription." Free. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1000 pages, is sent free, on receipt of stamps, to cover cost of stamps and mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 50 stamps for cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
