INTERNATIONAL BIBLE LESSON FOR TO-MORROW.

The Duty — or Grace — of Forgiveness.—Matt. 18, 21-35. Read also Matt. 5, 38-48.

Golden Text—"Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors."

Peter questions our Lord about the forgiveness of an offending brother; would not seven offences forgiven be enough, perhaps, to allow him to retaliate on the 8th offence?

Note, it was the treatment of an offending brother of the same family, church, or nationality, but not forgiveness for an alien, heretic or an enemy.

Law demands an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth to square accounts, but Jesus taught—Matt 5—resist not him that is evil; if he smites thee on thy right cheek turn thy left for the next blow; if thy coat must go to pay thy debt let thy cloak—overcoat—go also, sooner than thy debts be unpaid; if the law of the land tax thy team to drive a government official one mile, give him a lift two; if a man needs help give it, and don't refuse an honest man a loan.

This lesson is a good one throughout and should be carefully studied by the teachers, so that they may be enabled to portray its real beauties to the scholars.

PE-RU-NA KEEPS THE FAMILY IN THE BEST OF HEALTH.

This is Only One of a Million of Homes in Which Pe-ru-na Has Been a Blessing. Read This Family's Glowing Testimony.

MRS. H. J. CAMPBELL

Mr. Henry S. Campbell, 1737 S. Williams St., Denver, Col., State Deputy of Modern Woodmen, Montana, and Delegate of Builders Trades Council, writes: "Peruna has been a blessing in our home. My wife was in poor health for several years and nothing but Peruna helped her. She gradually recovered her health and became the mother of a boy which blessed our home. We call Gerald our Peruna boy. He is in the finest of health and his mother has never enjoyed such excellent health. 'I have personally found Peruna of great value to me while travelling. Getting irregular meals and often poorly prepared food ruined my stomach, but Peruna toned up my digestive organs and brought fine health to me. 'We are never without Peruna in our home and know by experience that it keeps us all in the best of health.'"

A recent letter received from Mr. and Mrs. Campbell is, as follows: "We still use Peruna and in addition to our son, Gerald, who is a fat and saucy lad of 28 months, we have another son, still larger for his age. He is now ten months old and is always healthy. "His mother says Peruna has surely made both of our children as healthy as they are, helped, of course by Colorado's healthy air.

"A bottle of Peruna is at all times a welcome visitor to our home."

A multitude of families have discovered that Peruna is their standby.

In all the catarrhal ailments which are likely to beset the various members of the family, Peruna is the remedy that brings quick relief.

No matter whether it be a catarrhal condition of the head or lungs, or a derangement of the stomach and bowels, Peruna is the remedy.

WOMAN ARTIST'S IDEA.

Original Interpretation of the Arms of Venus of Milo and What They Held Originally.

After more than eighty years' discussion as to the true interpretation of the pose of the armless Venus of Milo a member of the matches goddess own sex seems to have discovered her real meaning and reason for existence. The discoverer is Miss Francesca Paloma Del Mar, an artist of New York city.

This lady's interpretation of the Venus is that her goddessship is no Venus at all, but none less than the Divine Mother of the ancient religions, in this statue Demeter of the Greeks, mother of all the living, even Mater Deorum, Mother of the Gods.

Miss Del Mar declares the pose of the so called Venus shows that she must have been holding a somewhat heavy weight upon her left arm and supporting it by her shoulder when she had her picture taken. No human figure would assume such a posture unless it supported a weight. Miss Del Mar has made a painting, hercule size, of her ideal restoration of the statue, with a child in its arms, holding the infant in the manner described. She says that in securing women models to stand for her in this attitude she had not the slightest difficulty in placing them as they naturally fell in to the pose of their own accord while holding a child upon the left arm and against the left shoulder.

It will be observed that, as Miss Del Mar has restored the statue in her painting, it resembles a picture of the Madonna and Holy Child, even to the nimbus around the head of each. This is precisely the artist's idea. The Divine Mother and Holy Child are a conception evolved by paganism ages before the Christian era. The fathers of the Christian church adopted the tender and beautiful emblem among the symbols of the new faith. The nimbus or radiance around the heads of divinities was also employed as far back as heathen deities have been represented. The wall paintings of ruined Pompeii show pagan gods and goddesses with the halo, and Pompeii was destroyed in the year 79. Upon the mutilated heads of many ancient statues are still the fastenings of the destroyed nimbus.

Demeter, goddess of motherhood, one of the twelve deities of Olympus, was worshipped as the fertilizing and nourishing principle of nature. She was represented in painting and sculpture as a beautiful, nobly formed woman, yet "blooming with eternal youth." Her face is dignified, but always gentle, a different face from any of the various brands of Venuses, except indeed it be the Milo which is under discussion. It is a fact that when the mutilated Venus of Milo was found there were near it remains of the sculptured body and limbs of an infant.

Francesca Del Mar's art reputation was made in Europe, where she has frequently exhibited in Paris and London galleries under the name of Frank Paloma, thus conveying the impression that she was a man. She did this in order that her work might receive just consideration and be judged fairly. Miss Del Mar, Spanish by parentage, studied art in Europe for thirteen years, chiefly in London, Paris and Holland. She worked and studied during the thirteen years as only one does who is in earnest.

Interesting even as her great picture is the artist herself who painted it. She is a small, slender, very graceful woman of the Spanish type, dark, with soft, bright eyes and a sweet, cultivated voice. She is an expert fencer.

Hair Gone?

If your hair is falling out, strengthen it. Give it food, hair-food—Ayer's Hair Vigor. It checks falling hair, cures dandruff, and makes the hair soft and smooth. Sold for over half a century.

Suppose your hair should all leave you! Then what? Weak hair is the kind that falls out, not strong hair! Just learn a lesson from this. Give it food, hair-food—Ayer's Hair Vigor. It checks falling hair, cures dandruff, and makes the hair soft and smooth. Sold for over half a century.

Cotton Spinners Strike.

Montreal, July 6.—The cotton mill at Magog is closed again, after a meeting of 400 walked out. The strikers demand an increase of 20 per cent. in wages, recognition of the union, and that all agreements signed be null. The company consider these demands excessive and will resist them.

A Wonderful Record.

As made up by improved and exact processes Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, inversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. It cures the backache, periodical headaches, the dragging-down distress in the pelvic region, the pain and tenderness over lower abdomen, the surgeon's knife, the pelvic catarrhal drain, so disagreeable and weakening, and overcomes every form of weakness incident to the organs distinctly feminine.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, the makers of which are not afraid to print their formula on the bottle wrapper, thus taking their patrons into their full confidence. It is the only medicine for women, every ingredient of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the most eminent medical practitioners and writers of our day, recommending it for the diseases for which "Favorite Prescription" is used. It is the only put-up medicine for women, sold through druggists, which does not contain a large percentage of alcohol, so harmful in the long run, especially to delicate women. It has more genuine cures to its credit than all other medicines for women combined, having saved thousands of sufferers from the operating table and the surgeon's knife. It has restored delicate, weak women to strong and vigorous health and virility, making motherhood possible, where there was barrenness before, thereby brightening and making happy many thousands of homes by the advent of little ones to strengthen the marital bonds and add sunshine where gloom and despondency had reigned before.

Write to Dr. E. V. Pierce. He will send you good, fatherly, professional advice, in a plain, sealed envelope, absolutely free. Address him at Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets do not gripe. They effectually cleanse the system of accumulated impurities. The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, by Dr. Pierce, 1008 pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 50 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address as above.
