J. B. Tingley, at the Liberal Convention, in moving that Sir Frederick Borden be chosen as the liberal candidate, stated that Sir Frederick had the confidence, respect and esteem of not only the people of Kings and the Province, but all throughout Canada and the Mother Country (why not include the world?) This enthusiastic Elogist apparently did not consider it worth while to confine his application of love, devotion and appreciation to his own party. Perhaps the speaker in his transport of love and joy could only think of those belonging to his own political faith as worthy of the name people, a moral people at least! The Deacon draw a long bow!

Among the exhibits at the Wolfville exhibition was a jardiniere, the property of Mrs. E. C. Young, of this town. The jardiniere is about 90 years old and was formerly in the possession of the late Hon. Joseph Pitt-Randolph. Mrs. Young had it nicely hand-painted, the work being done by Mrs. J. W. Peters, and the same received first prize. —Bridgetown Monitor.

"The hold upon the people of Annapolis County which this ROYAL HOUSEHOLD flour has secured of late is one of the most remarkable things I have seen in my eighteen years' business experience," said an Annapolis County merchant who attended the Halifax Exhibition. "I find that the majority of my customers absolutely refuse to take anything but ROYAL HOUSEHOLD, and I tell you it is almost a serious problem with some of us as to how we are going to sell the stocks we have of other fairly good flours."
