CADETS AND B.I.S. DRAW IN GAME OF THE SEASON

The game of the season was played on St. George's Field Friday evening, when the B.I.S. champions for 1920-21, and the Cadets clashed for the honours, which after an exciting contest resulted in a draw. Despite the stores being open, over 2000 spectators witnessed the game and from start to finish fans were in their glory.

The Cadets won the toss and decided to play with the wind in their favour.

The Cadets forwards worked well and the Irish back division had their work cut out. Finally Maddigan got control and from near the penalty line, sent in a low one which was too much for Phelan, and the Cadets scored first blood. From now on excitement was intense. Both teams worked like trojans and the players gave out the best that was in them.

The B.I.S. got in close touch with Cadets on several occasions, but without results and the first half closed with Cadets 1-B.I.S. 0.

2nd. HALF

The B.I.S. now had all the advantage of the strong wind, and their plucky opponents also realized the situation, and from the outset were determined that it was to be a fight to a finish, and that no easy chances would be given.

Clare played the game of his life and seemed to have a charm over him, the manner in which he battled out the ball being a treat to spectators and he won the unstinted applause of both sides. While endeavouring to clear a dangerous situation Galgay accidentally came in contact with the ball, with the result a penalty was awarded the B.I.S. Amidst tremendous excitement this was placed by Walter Callahan, but Clare was impregnable and made a very spectacular save, the applause which greeted his feat lasting many minutes. The champions worked well and P. Phelan sent in a beauty which Clare saved, but in kicking out Burke was in its way and it rebounded into the net leaving both teams equal. No further scoring resulted, however, though both teams made several good attempts and when Referee Hunt sounded the final gong the score stood, B.I.S. 1-Cadets 1. The game was easily the best for the season and played on both teams are to be congratulated. The result will create new interest in football as it looks as if it's going to be a close run for the championship.

New Red Cross Liner Arrives

"SILVIA" A FINE BOAT

The new Red Cross Liner Silvia, Captain Mitchell, arrived from Glasgow at 3 p.m. yesterday, after a very stormy trip across, head winds being encountered all the way. The Silvia, which is a two-funnelled ship, berthed at the Furness pier where a large gathering of citizens were present and all were pleased with her graceful lines and fine appearance. She is fully equipped in every particular both as a passenger and freight carrier and those who travelled by her are loud in their praise of her as a sea-boat. The ship has accommodation for 180 first class passengers and 50 second class. Her staterooms and cabins de-luxe eclipse anything that has yet been seen on this service being large and comfortable. The dining saloon is forward of the stateroom, and is handsomely fitted, the furniture being of mahogany, upholstered in blue plush, while it has seating accommodation for 80 persons. Above the saloon is the music room which is elaborately fitted. The smoking room is further aft, and is nicely upholstered in red morocco, with light oak finishing. It is easily accessible from the staterooms or saloon and has all the latest conveniences for ocean travel. In every particular the Silvia has been fitted to meet the requirements of the service and she will undoubtedly tend to increase the volume of traffic on the St. John's-Halifax and New York route. The officers quarters are also in keeping with the general efficiency of the ship, while the crew's requirements and comforts are similarly looked after. The Silvia was formerly the Russian ship Orei, and is 3462 tons gross, 1922 tons nett. She was built in Danzig in 1909 and is an oil burner. The following passengers came by the ship:-Sir E. R. Bowring, Mrs. McCowan, Mrs. J. S. Munn, Lt.-Col. J. H. Riely, Lt.-Col. A. E. Bernard, Captain Keegan, Mrs. Keegan and child and maid, Miss F. A. Kennedy and child, Mr. H. Campbell, J. Campbell, Mrs. A. Brownling, F. R. Clouston, H. H. Goodridge, Lord Morris, Hon. M. Morris, J. Penman, H. Withall, S. Moore, F. H. Jones, Miss L. Jones, S. and Mrs. Harnshaw, J. Walsh, F. A. Parsons, J. Dutt and Master Butt.
