A DELIGHT

Was the Battlefield Event Given by the Ladies.

by the Ladies. The anual entertainment given by the Women's Wentworth Historical, at the battlefield, to celebrate the an-niversary of the battle on June 6th, 1813, was held on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Calder, president, and Mrs. John 8. Hendrie, first vice-president, re-ceived the guests. C. Percival Gar-ratt provided the musical programme, which consisted of vocal solos by Mrs. Esther Horne; violin solos, Miss Jean Pennington; vocal and piano solos, Mr. Garratt. Dr. Bryce, of Winnipeg, who is president of the Royal Society of Canada, with which the Women's Wentworth Historical Society is af-filiated, gave a stirring dress on the battle of Stoney Creek and its im-portance and then on the value of patriotism and urged Canadians to make the best of their opportunities, when Canada would achieve the greatness of which she is capable. He warmly commended Mrs. Calder and the members of her society, for their loyalty and patriotism in secur-ing and preserving that historic ground. Mrs. George Smith, of Halifax, defeated the players of the Telephon City by 25 shots. Thistles. E. G. Payne H. G. Gates Geo. E. Gates J. P. Bell Skip R. T. Steele G. D. Burns J. Wilson Skip W. A. Stewart Dr. McConnebi-Dr. McConochie C. W. Walker W. H. Davis Skip C. W. Cartwright R. R. Bruce C. S. Scott carrying the famous brown and yellow jacket. The stable started both Shimon-caee, the King's Plate winner, and Glim mer. The latter was the victor, and was never in difficulty. Mr. Meagher's good horse Moonraker was second. Shim onese, who lost ground in the early part, was only able to finish fourth, though at an extra quarter she would have been up with the leader. The time of the mile, 1.41 1-5, was the best of the meeting. Glimmer in this race added s0800 to the Valley Farm winnings. The Waterloo Handicap produced a thrilling finish, and the gallant little Terah, with a whirlwind run through the stretch, got up in time to win iron nan's horse was favorite, and his style of winning races is sensational. The Waterloo is a valuable race, and on this horse. Nat Ray rode his own horse, Byzan ine, over the steeplechase course of two and a half miles, and earned $1,500 two and a half miles, and earned $1,500 two and a half miles, and earned $1,500 two and a half miles, were the horse.
