

"ECHOES of the Past;

The Recompense of Love !"

CHAPTER XXVII.

"Yes, dearest," he went on. "I ried quickly, and I'm afraid we shall not be able to afford a long honey glowed: she drew a little nearer to him and leaned her head on his ly occupied a subordinate position in touch of death itself-that if, by some all were over between us, you would not care would not suffer."

"My dear Edith," he began, with a chill like that of which she had spoken creeping over him; but she broke in again before he could continue:

"If there are any grounds for my fear, if for any reason I am right in this dread of mine, I want you to tell me. I could bear it from your lips. It would kill me, but I should not complain. What I could not bear drive me mad." She drew herself from him and stood erect, her face white, her eyes flashing; she was at that moment the personification of the pride that is all-devouring, implac-

Clive took her hands and drew her down beside him again.

"My marriage with you is the one aim and desire of my life, Edith," he said gravely. "Put all such thoughts away from you. Believe me when I say that my whole life shall be devoted to making you happy."

word, a look," she said, "and you Gentleman speaks with a Polish-know it. Oh, Clive, if you knew how I loved you; but you never will Lord Chesterleigh knocked at the loor while they were talking and arranging the marriage; and he enterment. Lady Edith decided that she Notwithstanding his exalted politiin Burleight Street, still very often dined off a mutton-chop, and still smoked his old brier. Now and again he met Quilton on the stairs, or Quilentirely confined to political and simwoman, her mother, was never mentone of pity and sympathy for Clive: anyway, Quilton had not treated Clive lately with the touch of sardonic irony which was displayed on one or

That night, Clive paused at his own door and then went up to Quilton's He was conscious of a desire marriage. He knocked at the door and Quilton opened it a very little way and cautiously, but seeing that it was Clive, at once opened it widely and beckoned him to enter.

Quilton cleared a chair by the simple operation of tilting the books and papers upon it to the floor, and Clive sat down and leaned his head on his hands. He was the Right Honorable Clive Harvey, Secretary of State for would willingly change places with cheerless room. Quilton pushed his tobacco-pouch across the table and, separated, that seating himself on the arm of his writing chair, filled his own pipe.

"Anything the matter?" he inquired in a casual way.

Clive roused himself from his rev-"The matter? Oh, no. I am going to be married in about three weeks, and I thought I should like to tell you. Will you come to the cere-

"Much honored by the invitation, said Quilton, "but marriages are not in my way. All the same, I wish you going all right in the House?"

"Oh, yes," said Clive listlessly. "I see that some of your Socialist friends are making themselves a nuisance," said Quilton, "and those who are out of the House appear to

"Yes," said Quilton, staring at his "There's a man named Koshk who seems to have his knife in you. "You can make me happy with a Know him? But, of course, you do.

Clears The Head, Opens The Nostrils, Stops Sneezing, Cures Catarrh.

the Soothing Vapor

"Catarrhozone."

The inflammation extends further into dyspepsia and general ill-health. By tarrhozone." to the unhappy result.

You Get Instant Relief by Inhaling, There isn't the slightest use in trying to cure this condition with tabare wholly inadequate. You must em-Catarrh is bound to come with this ploy Catarrhozone the only remedy weather. Slight colds become more that possesses power to kill the offensive and sickening every day, germs of Catarrh. The healing vapor of Catarrhozone is carried by the air you breathe to the most minute cells have been having lately, eh?" of the nose, throat, bronchial tubes buzz and ring. The head aches, the and lungs. Its antiseptic medication eyes pain dreadfully, the nose gets goes everywhere that air can go. No plugged up and this forces the patient case is too chronic, no person too old to breathe through the mouth. Vile _everybody that has cartarrh of any opened it, Quilton said: filthy secretions are forced back into kind can be cured by this grand treatthe throat, requiring a great deal of ment which is endorsed by thousands coughing to keep the air passages of physicians throughout America, free. Finally, this foul matter finds who say: "The only way to permanits way into the stomach, causing ently get rid of Catarrh is to use Ca-

this time the patient has SYSTEMA- T W O MONTHS' TREATMENT TIC CATARRH, which saps strength, GUARANTEED TO CURE. PRICE depletes the vital energies till con- $1.00; small size 50c.; trial size 25c. Sold by dealers everywhere.

How To Make the Quickest, Simplest Cough Remedy

This home-made cough syrup is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy. Its promptness, ease and certainty in conquering distressing oughs, chest and throat colds is really remarkable. You can actually feel it ake hold. A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough—relieves even hooping cough quickly. Splendid, too, or bronchitis, spasmodic croup, bronchitis, spasmodic croup, bronchitis asthma and winter coughs.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of pinex (50 cents worth), pour it into a 16-ounce bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you, at a cost of only 54 cents, 16 ounces of better cough syrup than you could buy for $2.50. Takes but a few minutes to be repare. Full directions with Pinex astes good and never spoils.

You will be pleasantly surprised to ote how quickly it loosens dry, hoarse of tight coughs, and heals the inflamed nembranes in a painful cough. It also tops the formation of phlegm in the hroat and bronchial tubes, thus ending he persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated ompound of genuine Norway pine exerct, rich in gualacol, which is so healing to the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, be sure and k your druggist for "2½ ounces Pinex," don't accept anything else.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, money promptly refunded, goes with his preparation. The Pinex Co., To-on'o, Ont.

and adds to his other charming qualities an inherent dislike of soan an Clive laughed mirthlessly. "Oh,

"Just so. And of course you know you're being shadowed," said Quil-

"Yes: very closely and very neatly "A lady?" said Clive, with some display of interest and curiosity "A lady of Oriental type," replied Quilton. "Lady Edith's Hindu ser-

"Oh, you must be mistaken," said

"Not very easy to mistake a lady with so conspicuous a presence.' friendship with our friend Koshki To tell you the truth, while they have been shadowing you, I have been s." He got up and looked round him amusing myself by shadowing them

Yes: that's just it-amusing myself. "But, good heavens, why should Lady Edith's servant shadow me? Quilton shrugged his shoulders 'Can't say. I should have thought you might have known. You don't seem to be nervous about it?" Clive laughed and leaned back with something like amusement on his lined and haggard face

"Scarcely. Why should I be?" There was silence for a minute of two, and Clive relapsed into reveriagain: then he rose to go: but h hesitated and said in almost a hars and dry voice: "Have you heard-have you any

"Yes," said Quilton at once. "She has been ill. Breakdown, the doctors call it; they have ordered her to give up singing and take a rest. A case of the sword wearing out the scabbard, I should say."

Clive's face grew still paler, and the eyes he raised to Quilton were heavy with pain and trouble and de-

"Not-not seriously?" he asked almost inaudibly.

"No, no," replied Quilton. "A rest will put matters right."

"Where-where is she?" asked Clive

Quilton stared before him. "In about three weeks, you think?" he lets, snuff or spray. Such treatments said, as if he had not heard the quesis quite fixed, so that I can give a gorgeous account of the affair in The Beacon. What wretched weather we > Clive knew that it was no use his asking any further questions. With a sigh, he moved to the door. As he

"By the way, I should keep my eye apon that fellow Koshki, to say no thing of Sara. Koshki deals in dynamite, and our friends the Hindus are most of them familiar with the use

Clive shrugged his shoulders with an indifference too profound for con tempt, and went down the stairs with

CHAPTER XXVIII.

The days rolled on, and Clive mov-nad to keep his clear and in working with her trousseau, and it engaged so little of Clive, excepting at night, when, flushed with his parliamentary work, he did not look as bad as he really was. And yet, at times, she eaught a look on his face which swakened her vague uneasiness, but she lulled it to rest by the reflection that in a little while they would have eft London, and Clive would get the est he so sorely needed.

They were within a week of the vedding, when, one night, a telegram was brought into the House for Clive. He opened it listlessly; then started and stared at it like a man who has cceived a sudden shock.

"No bad news, I hope?" said Mr ord Chesterleigh and Edith happened to be in and were, of course

"My poor Clive!" said Lord Cheserleigh. "It is so sudden, so unexpected—and yet, he was always deliate and ailing."

"Yes; you must go at once," said ord Chesterleigh, with sympathy. 'Of course," he added quietly, "the vedding must be postponed."

Clive sighed. "I'm afraid it must," ie said. He raised his eyes to Lady Edith and found hers fixed on him vith a curious expression. "But only or a short time. We could have a ery quiet wedding as soon as posible."

She said nothing. They were alone ogether for only a few minutes beore he started, and she was very sient Death had dashed the cup from er lins would it be withheld from hem forever? was the thought, the Iread, that smote across her mind,

(To be Continued.)

In 1/2, 1 and 2 pound cans. Whole-ground-pulverizedalso Fine Ground for Percolators.

CHASE & SANBORN,

a slow and heavy step.

Meanwhile Lady Edith was busy

Fraham, who was sitting beside him. Clive mechanically handed him the elegram. "My brother Adolphus is

He left the House at once and went ound to Grosvenor Square, Both ighast at the news, and Lady Edith vent white: for in an instant she saw hat the wedding would have to be

"Yes." said Clive in a low voice.

Amusements.

"DOWN AMONG THE SHELTERING

Mr. Dan Delmar sings: "Down Among the Sheltering Palms" at the Crescent Picture Palace to-day. The picture programme is a really good one; see the Crescent's advertisement in another column for particulars. On to-morrow Mr. Delmar sings a double voice number, a style of singing that Mr. Delmar excells in: don't miss hearing this novelty number.

CHARMING PICTURES AT THE NICKEL THEATRE.

The Nickel Theatre was crowded again last evening and no doubt it will be largely attended again to-day The programme was one of the great est excellence. It was lengthy and varied and afforded the audiences every pleasure. The great sea story Enemies" in which Edith Story, Harry Morey and Rodger Lyton starred is a beautiful picture and appeals to Newfoundlanders especially. "Trey O' Hearts" and "The Perils of the Jungle" were also high class films and were closely followed. "Love in Armor" is a dainty comedy drama. The music was of the best. This evening the programme will be re The theatre at night is open until 11, so that those in the stores may attend. Be sure and see to-day's ough and I don't know where Bertie subjects. To-morrow there will be another grand presentation.

BRITISH THEATRE.

A very appreciative audience greet ed the portrayal of "Trey O' Hearts" it the above Theatre last night. Of bsorbing interest was the three reel subject, "Helping Mother," in which two of the best known performers or the screen vividly portrayed their parts. The cornet solo by Mr. Fen gessey was quite a new departure and being handled by such a master of this instrument proved to be a rare treat. A five-piece orchestra will be leard to advantage to-night. But the nest treat of all is in store for the patrons of the Br tish on Thursday and Friday nights of this week and hree times weekly thereafter for a imited period when the well-known and ever popular Mrs. Ayre will be leard in some of her best songs. Mrs. Avre is imbued with the true spirit patriotism and is doing this work solely for the benefit of the Ladies Patriotic Association in procuring o omforts for our boys at the front. ecompanied by Mr. Gordon Chris ian and with such an object the parons of this popular house will re ward her efforts by giving her a full

OR. DeVAN'S FEMALE PILLS Reliable nedicine for all Female Complaint $5 a box or three for $10, at drug stores. Mailed to an address on receipt of price. The Scober & Dau-Co., St. Catharines, Ontario.

PHOSPHONOL FOR MEN Restores Viz or Nerve and Brain; increases "grey matter" a Tonic-will build you up. $3 a box, or two for $5, at drug stores, or by mail on receipt of price THE SCORELL DRUG CO. St. Catharines. Ontacks

W P.A. Christmas Cift Fund

FOR OUR SOLDIERS AND SAILORS Only 210 Provided for and there are About 2,900 and this Fund Closes on Saturday, Nov. 20th.

Amount Acknowledged $ 69.06

Sir Edgar Bowring .. . A Heathen Miss Ruth Hickman Edgar Hickman Mr. J. Angus O'Dwyer Mr. D. J. Crotty Mrs. Wm. King Mr. Wm. King .. Miss H. G. Horwood Mrs. T. J. Duley .. Lady Horwood Mrs. W. C. Carnell Mrs. W. Sclater Mrs. W. H. Crowdy Miss May Randell ... Mrs. G. B. Lloyd ... Miss Daisy Lloyd Miss Gertie Lloyd Mrs. John Vey (Random, T.B).

> MARY MACKAY, Hon. Treas. Xmas. Gift Fund.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CUR DIPHTHEBIA.

Prohibition at Long Pond.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir,-I crave space for the publication of a few items concerning he progress of Prohibition at Long Pond. On Friday night, 23rd ult., Messrs. Soper, MacDonald and Cow-an delivered splendid speeches in favor of Prohibition to a packed audience in the spacious schoolroom at Long Pond. The above named gentlemen showed very conclusively in the masterful and convincing argunents put forth, the benefits would accrue to the country in genral, and to St. John's in particular f Prohibition were carried into eifect. The Rev. Canon Colley acted chairman of the meeting, which was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem. At the conlusion of the meeting a working mmittee was formed composed of he following members: Messrs fos. Dawe, chairman; R. Plowman ecretary; C. R. Rendell, W. Rendell, Herbert Greenslade, Richard Green slade, Peter Greenslade, Richard Ken nedy, Wm. Dawe, John Bishop, Walter Baird, Jacob Kennedy, Wm. Ken-nedy, John Dawe. On Friday night, the 29th ult., the committee held a meeting, at which speeches were The committee feel optimistic as to he result of the vote at Long Pond They are expecting at least 80 p.c. o the total votes of Long Pond will be east in favor of Prohibition. Thanking you in anticipation of space for the insertion of these few

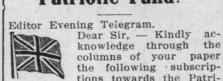

Yours sincerely,
Secretary Long Pond. Pro. Com.
Nov. 1st, 1915.

What Are You Doing for that Eczema?

"Nothing; I've about given up trying to cure it." "That is not wise. Do as I did and you will probably be cured in a short time. I used Zylex and Zylex Soap with it and my Eczema began to improve at once. A couple of boxes cured. You can get Zylex at your druggists." Zylex, 50c. a box; Zylex Soap, 25c.

Patriotic Fund.

Already acknowledged ..$100,849.54 King Edward VII. L.O.L. No. 70, Perry's Cove, per Robert Kelloway, Rec

Camp, per Jas. S. Keating, Esq.: Miss Ella Campbell, Head Nurse$6.00 Miss May Cook, Nurse. 1.50 Miss G. Gibbons 1.50

L.O.L. No. 151, Ramea, per John Payne, W.M. William Geary, Esq. A Friend 5.00 $100.886.54

Yours very truly, JOHN S. MUNN, Hon. Treas. Patriotic Fund Royal Hotel, Raymond & Doherty Messrs. Dearborn & Co. Gentlemen: Your BAKING POW-

Yours truly. Raymond & Doherty, St. John, N.B. nov1,2i

NP.A.

DER is all right. We are using it and find it all that can be desired.

TRAFALGAR DAY HOSPITAL FUNI

Amount acknow-Conception Harbour, additinoal amount, per M. F. 15 9 Harbor Breton, additional per C. Way, Esq., S.M. rafalgar Chapter, I. O. D. E., per Miss D. C. Clement, Trafalgar Day lichael Grant, Lawn, per J. Benning, S. M. . willingate, per J. A. Temple-Stanley Jeans, Change Islds. 2 00 Hugh Vavasour 2 00

$9,823.47 J. A. CLIFT, Treasurer. St. John's, Oct. 30th.

The Meigle arrived at Port aux Basjues at 5.30 a.m. 'to-day. The Sagona arrived at Venison Isand at 8.30 a.m. to-day coming south.

tastes so good just now. Firm, white fleshed, tender as chicken and sweet as a nut, it is meat to make the strictest vegetarian reform.

CORN-FED PIGS TRY A LOIN, A SHOULDER and you'll enjoy a meat treat for

OUR FRESHLY MADE

. come from the same choice pigs. Try some for breakfast. Doesn't even the thought make your mouth

M. CONNOLLY.

Just received,

Celebrated

Chocolates—selected.

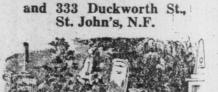

These Chocolates are unexcelled and sought after by lovers of 5.00 CHESLEY WOODS.

Sole Agent, 282 Duckworth St.

Skinner's Monumental Works

Head of Beck's Cove Hill and Headstones and Monuments. Catalogue of photo designs of our own work with price list and all information for mail ordering sent to any address on request. Write to-day. Local cemetery work attended to. First-class work only at reasonable prices. None but first-class stone sockets supplied with all headstones.

JOHN SKINNER. nay15.6m.s.tu.th

+++++++++

ply ask for Whisky.

Ask for House of Lords.

a mellow full strength, 10 Years Old

Scotch — a favourite with the public.

+++++++++ Holland Bulbs

Hyacinths, Tulips. Daffodils, Narcissus, Jonquils, Freesias, Snowdrops, Crocus. A. E. CANNING, ct27.tf Forest Road.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES GAR-GET IN COWS.