S. P. A. Annual.

His Excellency the Governor gra-ciously occupied the chair yesterday at the annual meeting of the Society for Protection of Animals. The president, after acknowledging the society's obligation to the Gren-fell Institute for free use of the room on this as on former occasions, de-livered to the society the portrait of the late Sir Henry A. Blake, pre-sented by Lady Blake. Sir Henry and Lady had been the society's patrons when it was established here in 1888

The legacy of Lieut. Norman Outerbridge, who fell at Monchy, was gratefully acknowledged.

The society had been chary in appealing for contributions during the war, and its operations had been hereby limited, but funds must nov be sought and its work extended Mr. C. J. Fox, Hon. Secretary

Mr. C. J. Fox, Hon. Secretary, read his report which was adopted, and when published will be found very instructive. Mr. C. E. Hunt, Hon. Celebration. The members of Leeming Lodge, No. 54, Loyal Orange Association, assembled in their Hall last night for the purpose of celebrating the Golden Jubilee of their Lodge, which had been arranged to take place on October 23, 1918, but for various reasons and because of unusual circumstance prevailing at that time was postponed till last night. Among the guests were many wearing the blue of the navy and the khaki of the army, the latter predominating. Over one hundred sat down to dinner at 8 o'clock, the catering for which was in the competent hands of Mr. F. B. Wood, the service being all that could be desired. The Hall had been specially decorated for the occasion and pre-sented a brilliant appearance, the e.g., in the extern districts, 'he sented a brilliant appearance, the bright colors of the flags and streamparade would be held during the coming summer.

Penney, Worshipful Master of Leeming Lodge, read letters of regret from several members who were unable to be present, among them being Sergeant Ricketts, V.C., who had during the afternoon been ordered to the Military Hospital. Hon. R. A. Squires, P.G.M. of Newfoundland and Hon. J. C. Crosbie, Minister of Shipping were both prevented from attending, the former being suffering from the effects of a bad cold. Tele grams of congratulation from Sister Lodges were received during the even-ing, and read from the Chair. Following the discussion of the menu, the Toast List was taken up and carried through in fine style:

In proposing the toast Sister Lodges, Bro. Jordan Milley, Grand Secretary, stated that more than 25 per cent. of the members of the Orange Association in Newfoundland, had volunteered for service in the army and navy. About twelve per cent. succeeded in passing the medical board test, which was a splendid record of patriotism and duty done. The celebration which concluded with the singing of the National An-them, was one of the most enjoyable ever held in Orange circles and will long be remembered by those privi-
