

Dowden and Duffy

IGNORED BY FITZGIBBON TOUTERS IN ST. JOHN'S WEST.

With a view to putting a wide gap between Fitzgibbon and his colleagues, the former's special touters are advocating the ignoring of Dowden and Duffy, on the same lines that Blanton in Placentia is working. They want to sink Dowden and Duffy well under water, much further even than they will be pushed by the great majority for the Monroe candidates; and by this means hope to get a few sympathy votes for Fitzgibbon from the Monroe supporters. The irony of it is that Dowden's special touters such as Mondell et al are working the same game on behalf of "their little man," so both are giving a splendid exhibition of cut-throatism. The one and the other are throwing out libelles to the Monroe straight ticket supporters to give them a help, but there is "nothing doing," consequently on Monday there will be an unwavering determination in St. John's West to stand solid for the Monroe trio, CHOSBIE, LINEGAR AND BROWNE.

Week-End Excursion

To accommodate voters returning to their Districts for Polling Day, the management of the railway have decided to put into effect a special week end excursion rate commencing from to-day, which will be good until Tuesday next. The first express special, going to Corner Brook, leaves the city on Monday next at 5 p.m., and leaves there on the return trip at 11.30 p.m. Tuesday. No doubt many of the voters will avail of this train to reach their polling centres.

Obituary

MARGARET WAKELY.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wakely, Haystack, P.B., was saddened yesterday when word was received from Orange, New Jersey, acquainting them of the death of their youngest daughter, Margaret.

The deceased lady was in her 19th year and left home in September last to take up nursing as her chosen profession. About three months ago she was taken suddenly ill and although everything possible was done to effect a cure, she gradually grew worse, the end coming peacefully on Thursday last.

The late Miss Wakely had many friends in St. John's, to whom news of her passing will come as a shock. She leaves to mourn, besides father and mother, two sisters, Mrs. Alan Edwards, Circular Road and Miss Annie, stenographer, Crown Life Insurance Company, and one brother, Mr. Isaac Wakely, Patrick Street, to whom heartfelt sympathy will go out in their time of sorrow. The remains will be sent home for burial by the next Red Cross boat.
