

Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. Munton, on motion of Messrs. Sorby and John Card, the latter of whom complimented the Secretary on his efficient performance of his duty.

On motion of Messrs. Sorby and Mann, it was instructed that the following be incorporated in the rules of the Society:— Upon the discovery of any fraud, deception, or dishonest practice, either in the preparation, ownership, or of any representation concerning any article exhibited, which may have affected, or may be likely to affect, the decision of the Judges, the Board shall have power to withhold the payment of any prize awarded, and may prohibit any such party or parties from exhibiting in any class for one or more years, and may also publish the names of such persons or not, as may be deemed most expedient.

Mr. Noah Sunley proposed that the Horticultural Society's next show be held in the Central Exhibition Park, in conjunction with other attractions, on Dominion Day. In the conversation which ensued the proposition was regarded with favor. The idea was to make arrangements for an afternoon instead of an evening show, and make it sufficiently attractive to keep people in town. A committee was appointed, consisting of Messrs. Sorby, Mann, and Gilchrist with power to add to their number, for the purpose of devising a programme, and reporting to a journeled meeting of the Society, to be held that day three weeks.

The meeting then closed.

BREAKFAST.—Epps's Cocoa.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. —Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Each packet is labelled— "James Epps & Co., Homoeopathic Chemists, London."
