If you trust in God and yourself you can surmount every obstacle. Do not yield to restless anxiety. must not always be asking what may happen to one in life, but one must udvance fearlessly and bravely.

—[PRINCE BISMARCK.

London, Thursday, Nov. 30.

-Out of $96,000 revenue the Hamilton Street Railway Company paid the city $11,174 last year. That is a snug little

-T. P. O'Connor, M.P., in a recent magazine article spoke of the gravity with which unimportant matters were brought forward and discussed in the British House of Commons. An illustration is the recent discussion of the Hallowe'en pranks of two or three lads in Montreal.

-The rainfall of the last day or two has been very disagreeable, but it is worth a great deal to the farmers. Before the wet spell many agriculturists in Ontario were fearful lest winter would set in before the dry ponds and creeks were filled. A large that the operations of the scoundrels winter and spring without plenty of water is almost as great a trouble to the farmer as a long spell with a pancity of food.

The plebiscite grows in favor. Winnipeggers will take a vote at the municipal elections as to whether the ratepayers of that place prefer the city government to be carried on by a mayor and city council, as at present, or by salaried commissioners, a eystem adopted in some American cities. A change is said to be warmly espoused by many taxpayers.

-It must be with regret that the electors of South Wellington part with so faithful a representative as Mr. Donald Guthrie, Q.C. But they will feel the loss less severely if they elect, as they seem certain to do, the candidate selected for the vacancy by the Liberals of the riding. Major Mutrie, who is well known and respected by hosts of friends as the senior major of the Thirtieth Wellington Rifles, is their choice. He has been reeve of Eramosa for a dozen years, and warden of the county for two terms. He is a successful farmer, and is popular both in town and country. Mr. Guthrie, M.P.P., retires at the ensuing general election.

TO THE RECORD.

It seems that the present mayor of London denies that he boasted on the platform in the campaigns with Ald. Spencer and Ald. Gartshore that he would save the city more in legal expenditures than possible for these gentlemen to save.

That the boast was made is notorious. Hundreds of citizens who listened to it can so testify. As to the statement made by the mayor that the Advertiser puts his promises and his performances side by side, "because it always has its knife in him," that is simply a bit of childishness. Surely a public journal can disagree with a public servant, as very many citizens have done, without being regarded as engaged in a perpetual effort at homicide!

BRITAIN HAS DONE HER SHARE The London Times takes the ground that it would be a great advantage to all parties concerned if we bad free trade within the Empire. No doubt of it. There is noth-Britain and her various dependencies at the their absence or death permit others to present time but the monopolist-controlled vote for them, while hundreds of good Governments, which insist on taxing British voters who have qualified in the interval goods and restricting mutual trade, while receiving a perfectly free market for all the products that they choose to send to the mother land. This policy might be altered, Canadian trade restrictionists say, if Great Britain would only consent to dis-United States and elsewhere in favor of the many other respects they are infinitely sucriminate against her customers in the Dominien. It is useless to even suggest such a bargain. Neither of the great polisical parties will listen to any scheme that would have for its effect the levying of a tax on Britain's raw materials, and the consequent curtailment of her trade with the nations naving for her finished products. the nations paying for her finished products with those materials. We have free trade with Britain now on the other side of the Atlantic. All that we need to decree is that the free trade shall be reciprocal, and down every barrier to commerce that the necessities of the revenue will permit. him copies of them

It is rumored that the Toronto Empire and Toronto Mail will be amalgamated, and that the product will be the mouthpiece of Sir John Thompson. Meanwhile until after the Ontario elections, we may expect to see the Mail become more and more the organ of the P. P. A. branch of the Conservative party. It is pretty well quali fled now, as in its most recent issue it had no fewer than five anonymous letters, each attacking the Mowat Government. By the way, how comes it that reputable newspapers permit their columns to be used for the dissemination of all kinds of ribstabbing insinuations by men who sneak under the refuge of an assumed name, and are too

As a consequence of this discovery a watch was organized and a man named Chamberlain, alias Ayre, claiming Toronto as his home, was arrested, and the following notes were found in his pockets:

"TORONTO, Nov. 19, 1893. My Dear Ross:

"John Ayre, hotel-keeper of this place, "I) hand you this as an introduction. He nd others leave to-night. Give him every and others lead of the Autonion and oblige. Yours, etc. J. S."

A. W. Ross will be found at his brother's office (who is a lawyer) on Main street, or at the Leland House."

The man Chamberlain now lies under the accusation of having personated absentees in the interest of the Conservatives. Mr. Ross, M.P., says he was acquainted with the accused in Vancouver and met and shook hands with him when he arrived at Winnipeg last week; but he denies all knowledge of the man's doings in connec tion with the election.

It is indeed a peculiar case. No other outcome than wholesale person ation and rascality was to be expected from the Dominion voters' lists, revised as they are at long intervals. They leave hundreds of men who have no longer any interest in a constituency to vote, or in are disfranchised. The Provincial lists are not perfection, but they at least provide for timely revision and enforce the principle of one man, one vote, with the right to exercise the franchise only as long as a voter has his domicile in the constituency. In that and

London has a new and important industry. It is seven years since Messrs. Chiera & Vier established a branch of the Parisian Steam Laundry in London. They were humble and unassuming, and did not ask a bonus when they came. Neither did they ask for free water (a very important item to a laundry), and although London water is the best that could be had for drinking purposes, it might be mentioned drinking purposes, it might be mentioned just here that it is not the very best for laundry work. Cards and Every Facility for Cheating.

Montreal, Nov. 29.—The trial of Andrew Maloney, Edwin Matthews, Valley Bailey and John Baird, on the charge of keeping a gambling house, came to an abrupt end this morning. The jury, after being locked up all night, could not agree, six standing for conviction and six for acquittal. The gambling house was the most notorious one in the city, and operations were in tull swing when the police raided the place. Bestden the gambling paraphernalia the sum of $5,000 was seized in the safe. All the cards were marked, and there was every facility for cheating. The information was given by a mannamed Harry Walters, who swore he lost $2,000 in the place. The money belonged to his father, Mr. Charles Walters, an official of the Investment Company here. Prisoners were released on bail to stand at next term.
