That there is "nothing new under the sun" is a truism which has jeered more than one playwright into obscurity; but it is not the newness of things from which the clever playwright cuts the garment "play," but the newness of the situation, and it is here that "The Henhealing and curative powers are possessed by no other remedy. THE TOBACCO HABIT CURED.

In the interest of the masses, for whom these reports are compiled, the United States Heaith Reports have examined and investigated many preparations having for their object the cure of the tobacco habit, but among them all we have no hesitancy in giving the editorial and official endorsement of these reports to the remedy known as "Uncle Sam's Tobacco Cure," manufactured by the Keystone Remedy Company, at 218 La Salle street, Cnicago. They are distributing literature this week all through the city, and in the light of our examinations and tests of "Uncle Sam's Tobacco Cure," we are but performing a duty we owe the public when we indorse the same, and stamp it as the crowning achievement of the nineteenth century, in the way of destroying a habit as diagusting as it is common (For Only $1) hence we earnestly advise you to read full particulars, and if you have not seen circulars to call at W. An Afternoon of Pleasure at Pretty Glenmore.

A Run With the Hounds-The Bicyclists

The scene at Glenmore, the Home of the London Hunt Club, was most animated yesterday afternoon, when the officers gave an "At Home" to their friends. The natural beauty of the scene was enhanced by the gay hunting costumes and bright dresses of the guests, while about 30 members of the Glenmore Bicycle Club added novelty to the hunt scene. A large delegation of Detroit gentlemen were present, and the guests were received by Mrs. Gibbons and Mrs. Niven. The run started at 5:15 p.m. from the back of the Ladies' College, east to Adelaide street, thence north through the Hodgins farm, and ended at Ralph's on con. 6. The fences were numerous and several slight mishaps occurred, hounds were well hunted by Huntsman Wilson, and the scent was good, considering the heat of the day. But the runs have to be much curtailed on account of the farms being now under crop. Among those who were mounted vere noticed: The master, Mr. A. Beck; the master of the Hamilton Hounds, Dr. Osborne; Mr. Sweeney, Mr. Benjamin Senog, Mr. Collins, Mr. Baldwin, Mr. Barber, Mr. Moran, Mr. J. Fulcher (Detroit), Miss Harris, Miss Gartshore, Miss A. When This Announcement Is Read We'll Have Another Crowd of Eager Buyers for

Carpets

RIENDS and neighbors are telling friends and neighbors of the wonderfully low prices at which we are offering goods. This accounts for the continual crowds in our stores. Nowhere in this country-in all the cities, villages or hamlets-are Carpets of such superior quality or such true surpassing elegance and newness offered at anything like the underselling prices that prevail here. In marking the prices on our goods our one sole object and uppermost principle is to show the buyer that every. thing we sell is immeasurably lower than anywhere else. If we buy anything cheap, we sell it with simply current expenses and a very small profit added and you derive the benefit of our low spot cash purchases. We challenge any house in America to meet these phenomenally low prices.
