Thamesville, Nov. 25 .- On Friday, the 20th, there occurred the saddest accident that has been known around these parts for a long time, Mr. Edward L. Everitt, accompanied by his father, Mr. William Everitt, and Willie Pelfrey, were out in the woods hunting rabbits. They had put the ferret in a hole for a rabbit, and they had their guns ready cocked to shoot when the rabbit would come out, but there was no rabbit there, and they startis now recalled by the police that a ed on. The father and Willie were just woman corresponding to the accused ahead, when they heard a shot, and Mr. called at the morality department Everitt turned around, and there lay his in the past summer, asking for the son dead on the ground. Just as he had son dead on the ground. Just as he had turned to start he slipped on the snow, and his gun went off with the jar, and killed him instantly. The father was left alone in the woods with his dead son while young Pelfrey ran to get help. The shock is very great for the father, and it is feared he will never get over it. The mother and sister are almost prostrated with grief, and the three brothers are very badly broken up over the sad affair. The whole community is shrouded in sadness by young Everitt's death, as he was one of those manly young men whom to know was to love and honor him, as he was invariably onorable in word and deed. He was a member of the Methodist Church here and was always at his post, always ready to work for the Master. He was a mem-ber of the I. O. O. F. lodge, and was buried with the ceremonies of the order. The members turned out in full force, showing the respect they had for their departed brother. Just five months ago Mr. Everitt's wife died, and left two little girls, on 2 years old and the other 1 year old. The elder stayed at home with her father, while the younger lived with his mother, and now they are left without either father or mother. Such a scene as those two sweet children presented could not but move the hardes heart, especially when the elder one asked, "Has papa gone to see mamma?" The deepest sympathy is extended by the whole community to the bereaved friends in this sad hour. Mr. Wesley Everitt, of Toronto, is at home, attending the funeral of his brother.

Mrs. A. Everitt came home on Monday last from Chatham, where she underwent a very successful operation in St. Joseph's Hospital. She is getting along as well as can be expected.
