Methodists Held a Union Meeting

In First Church on Thanksgiving

Impressive Sermon Preached by Rev. George Dewey.

The First Methodist Church was well filled yesterday morning, when the union Thanksgiving meeting of the members of the different Methodist churches of the city was held. Rev.
George Dewey, of Empress Avenue Methodist Church, gave a splendid address, taking as his subject the words from James, 1, 17: "Every good and perfect gift is from above."

Impressive Sermon.

"In these words," said Mr. Dewey, "we get a correct view of God. Any philosophy of physical science is unsound, and untrue in proportion of its wholly unshared views to the truth as to God. It is equally so in civil life, no man can attain to the loftiest life, whose principles are not in harmonious accordance with the truth of God. Heresies and doctrines, errors in morals and wrongs in life are to be traced almost invariably to some mistake regarding the truth of God. In this day of natural thanksgiving the sense of gratitude to God will be wholly determined by the individual conception of the truth of God."

"If we could populate the emotions of men and women individually, touching this matter of gratitude I believe it would be a sparkling revelation.
What we call gratitude is only satisfaction. The man who sits down to a fine dinner today, and is well filled feels only satisfaction, not gratitude."

MORTGAGE HAS BEEN WIPED OUT

The Southern Congregationalists Burned Document Last Night.

The Southern Congregational Church was the scene of much rejoicing last night, when the members gathered to hold a special thanksgiving service, and burn the mortgage, which, after ten years of work, they have succeeded in wiping out.

Rev. W. H. Claris, pastor of the church, presided, and during the evening speeches were made by Rev. D. S.
Hamilton and Deacon R. Moule, of the First Congregational Church. Letters of congratulation were read from Messrs. E. Cooks, of Lethbridge, Alberta, and T. Allen, of Windsor, Conn.
Miss Maud Fowler rendered a solo most acceptably, after which Mr. Samuel Jepson, treasurer, read a statement showing the financial standing of the church, and declaring it free from debt.

Poultry Show Was a Big Success

Some of the Many Prize Winners

The Exhibition at Queen's Park Thanksgiving Day Drew a Large Crowd.

The second annual exhibition of the London Poultry and Pet Stock Association, held yesterday in the poultry building at Queen's Park, was a grand success. The quality of the exhibit has never been excelled in London.

The weather man was in a pleasant mood, the day being an ideal one for a poultry exhibit.

Bright and early the drays were at work gathering up the birds from all parts of the city, starting at 6 o'clock, and by 10 o'clock 1,400 fowls were placed in the building ready for the judges.

At 11 o'clock the judges commenced their work, and never in the history of a London poultry show was the competition so keen. During the afternoon there was an immense crowd present, and great interest was taken in the different breeds, every breed having its own admirers.

During the afternoon lunch was served in the spacious dining-room of the poultry building by the association.

Some of the Winners.

Below will be found a few of the principal winners:

Black Cochins Bantams head the list with the largest entry—134.
Black Rosecomb Bantams were second, with an entry of 86, and Barred Rocks third with an entry of 78 and a splendid class.

John Pringle, James McCormick and A. Hocken were the heaviest winners.
Mr. Pringle winning the cup. Mr.
Hocken and Mr. McCormick did well, getting the silver medals and also won on pens.

White Rocks—A heavy class, with some fine specimens. Some of the birds in this class were in grand shape.
James Carroll and J. Shollice captured the bulk of the prizes, Carroll winning first cock and Shollice first cockerel.

The Black Orpingtons were a fine class, and are coming to the front very fast. As a show bird they cannot be excelled and always draw a large crowd.

R. Oke won first cockerel; Kemp & Waterman got first and third on cock birds, and first, third and fourth on hens; also first four pullets.

James R. Hamilton won first pen, second, fourth and fifth cocks, second hen and second cockerel.

C. Scayne, a young breeder in this class, won third and fourth cockerel, making a good showing for a beginner.

Buff Orpingtons—A fair class. W.
T. Lawrence, another young breeder, is coming to the front, and took the lion's share in Buffs. J. Taylor won some, also.

Cochins—A small class. A. George showed some good Blacks.
Rhode Island Reds, Single-Comb —

T. Burns and Tom Taylor and Red Feather Poultry Yards were the principal winners. This breed is improving fast. In Rosecomb Rhode Island Reds, Red Feather Poultry Yards made almost a clean-up, taking nearly everything in sight.

White Wyandottes—Some rare specimens in this class. Mr. McLeod and James Carroll did well. Mr. McLeod winning the cup for the best bird in the show.

Partridge Wyandottes—F. Adams and Lew Sage divided the honors.
Columbian Wyandottes—Quite an improvement was noticeable in this class, which is virtually a new breed, but is coming to the front. John Pringle, Mr. Jones and Mr. Bassett were the winners.

Silver Wyandottes—A nice lot. Jas.
Arthurs, A. Flawn and Peep-o'-Day Yards were in the running.

Golden Wyandottes—H. Fitzmaurice and R. H. Saunders took everything in sight.

Single-Comb White Leghorns—Doddie & McNeil swept the boards.
Rose-Comb White Leghorns—R.
Oke and H. C. Finchamp captured this class.

Single-Comb Brown Leghorns—W.
A. Gurney had a large exhibit and swept the deck, winning the silver medal for best cockerel in Mediterranean, Asiatic, English and American classes.

Rose-Comb Brown Leghorns—Irvin & Yealand and Mr. Tozer won.
A. O. V. Leghorns—George and R.
Newcombe captured this class.

Black Minorcas—Tom Faulds, South London, trims them all.
White Minorcas—All to A. Bock.
R. Oke won on Hamburgs and Mr.
McNeil on Poles.

In all varieties of Indian Games, Finchamp and Topping swept the deck.

Black Red Game Bantams—All to T.
Sherlock.

Pyle Games—J. Hutton was principal winner.

A. O. V. Bantams—All to Doddie & McNeil.

Golden Seabrights—All to Oke, Sles-sor and Brill.

Silver Seabrights—All to Oke, Sles-sor and Kiley.

Rose-Comb Blacks—All to Sles-sor, Doddie & McNeil, and Westbrook.

Light Br-hma Bantams—All to R.
Dickey.

Partridge Cochins Bantams—All to Mr. Brill and Thorpe.

Black Cochins Bantams—There were 134 in this class, the largest exhibit of birds ever shown at one show.

Doddie & McNeil and Slesor were big winners. Slesor won the Beattie cup, also prize for the best male in the show.

White Cochins Bantams—Doddie & McNeil captured the bulk in this class.

Buff Cochins Bantams—Doddie & Mc-Neil and Oke took in this lot.

J. Saunders wins McKay cup for the best collection of any variety.

Mr. Marsh exhibited a fine lot of pigeons.

CONCERT PROVED ARTISTIC EVENT

Splend'd Programme Rendered by Dundas Center Choir
Last Night.

A splendid audience gathered in Dundas Centre Methodist Church last night, and listened attentively to the splendid programme of a thanksgiving concert. The choir, which this year shows more than ever the care taken in the choice of voices and the splendid training of their capable leader, Mr. J. Parnell Morris, sang with splendid tone quality, sure attention and careful phrasing, the several anthems allotted to them, and especial mention should be made of the "Lul-aby of Life," by Henry Leslie, which was rendered with a fineness of effect seldom heard.

The church quartette, consisting of Miss Annie Reid, soprano; Miss Lilian Gilmore, contralto; Mr. H. S.
Walker, tenor, and Mr. W. H. Skinner, bass, all had work which suited their respective voices, and which they sang well.

Miss Gilmore, who has only recently been appointed contralto soloist, made a most profound impression by her rendering of Liddle's "Abide, With Me." Her voice is of a rich, deep quality, and she is the possessor of that true indication of the artist, viz., temperament.

A Hamilton Elocutionist.

Miss Jessie Irving, elocutionist, of Hamilton, who has on two former occasions charmed Londoners, received a warm reception, and it is safe to say that Miss Irving charmed her host of admirers on each re-appearance.

Mr. George Dixon, solo tenor of Toronto, scored a triumph. His voice, of a rich, robust quality, reveals at once the splendid training he has received, and his artistic rendering of his every solo stamps him as a singer of the first rank. As an encore he sang
"The Standard on the Braes of Mar," and so thrilled the audience that he had to repeat it.

Mr. Morris, in addition to the accompaniments and conducting, played two organ solos. "An encore to Tours" ("Mother o' Mine," he sang
"The Standard on the Braes of Mar," and so thrilled the audience that he had to repeat it.
