NOW OUR THOUGHTS CAN BE MEASURED

Invention.

New York, Dec. 16 .- Prof. Alvan A. Tenney, of the department of sociology at Columbia University, has invented a system by which he believes he can compute approximately how much time the average man spends in thinking upon any given subject during a lifetime.

He has set 25 students of one of his classes at work reading files of news-R. G. H. KENNEDY DENTIST — papers, weekly periodicals and religious publications, extending back office. Phone 975. classify the news and determine how much news of a certain kind a paper prints in a year. He already has found that within the past ten years reli-gious news has fallen off and sporting news has increased. This, he says, indicates an increased desire for outdoor life and exercise.

The statistics gathered so far are DR. NELSON GEORGE, 332 DUNDAS said to bear out his contentions that the papers print only what the public wants wants.

DROPPED DEAD.

Peterboro, Dec. 16 .- Wm. E. Talbot, well-known local tobacconist, drop ped dead last evening. Mr. Talbot had not been feeling in his usual health for the past few days, and he had just reached his home after leaving his place of business, when the sudden call
