IN WALL STREET. Press Despatch. New York, June 29.-It took about 15 minutes of trading after the opening of the stock exchange this morning to demonstrate the disinchination of stocks to continue the advance which aroused the hopes of the bulls yesterday. The mar-ket started off with a great show of animation and a semblance of strength. Prices of Americans were up in London, but whether this symptom was the result of operations by cable from this side is open to inference. At all events the advance in prices seemed to be designed for the benefit of the snorts, who were anx ous to cover after yesterday's rise. The demand from this element was so liberally fed that it made slight impression on prices, and after it was satisfied the market became notably soft. The movement afterwards was irregularly G-/WESWERGAS on a very small volume of Press Despatch. Prices of Americans were up in London sion on prices, and after it was satisfied the market became notably soft. The movement afterwards was irregularly always on a very small volume of business. The languid movement of prices during the latter part of the day was largely governed by the fluctuations in the wheat market, stocks hardening slightly with the midday reaction in wheat, and sagging again when the price of wheat rallied.
