POLITICAL MATTERS IN RESTIGOUCHE CO.

Provincial Government Organs Busy Making Vacancies In Legislature

NOTHING IN THEM

Various organs friendly to the New Brunswick government are busy making vacancies in the ranks of the local party in Restigouche. According to their story Hon. Mr. LaBelle is to be provided with a federal office and Mr. Wm. Currie, M. P. is to resign. For the benefit of those the Graphic can state that the best of authority that there is not a word of truth in these statements, so far as the present is concerned. At the next session of the local legislature which will be held next winter both the members for Restigouche will be in their seats to attend to their legislative duties.

The despatch dated Campbellton was evidently the happy inspiration of some local government leader's active brain.

POINT DU CHENE MAN KILLED.

Supposed to Have Been Struck by the Maritime Express on Sunday Morning.
DIED IN HOSPITAL.

Devy Wallace a young man whose home was at Point du Chene, was struck by a train on the I. V. R. track at an early hour Sunday morning, at or near Dock's Sliding, between New Mills and Natchie's Creek, and died at the hospital here Sunday noon.

Young Wallace, who has worked in the woods and mills of Restigouche for the past two years, was evidently walking along the track to his boarding house, at or near Jacques River, when he was struck by some train, presumably the Maritime express and had one leg severed, the other badly broken and his head bruised.

The unfortunate man was found beside the track by Con. Dock's special which was following the express, at about five o'clock, more than two hours after the accident happened. When picked up he was unconscious but was very weak and could not tell anything about how he was struck. The train was rushed to Campbellton and the injured man sent to the hospital and everything possible done for him, but he never recovered from the shock and loss of blood, dying about noon.

Word was sent to his home and an elderly brother, Henry Wallace and a friend arrived here on the Maritime express and took his body to Point du Chene on the Maritime two hours later.

SABLE ISLE ROBBED OF ITS TERRORS

Result of Improved Lights
Charts and Marconi
System

NO RECENT WRECKS

The last vessel wrecked on Sable Island was the steamer Skidby, Captain Pearson, 2,000 tons, while on a voyage from Newcastle-on-Tyne to Baltimore. She encountered heavy ice on the banks of Newfoundland and lost two blades of her propeller. She grounded on the south-east bar early on the morning of January 6th, 1904, and the crew were successfully rescued. The next day the steamer came off the bar and drifted east about four miles from the west end light, where she grounded broadside. The force of the seas drove her high by inch on the beach until her port side was high and dry. Here she laid, her hull intact, until a few days ago, when Mr. Brister sent a number of men to the island to break her up.

The work of turning the steamer into junk is now going on, the Herald.

The steamer Bridgewater has already brought up two cargoes, of 100 tons each and the work will be continued until the steamer is pulled entirely to pieces.

The Skidby was to have loaded grain at Baltimore. The loss of her propeller blades had caused her to exceed her time charter.

MAY DIE FROM KNIFE S.

Norwegian Used Butcher Knife on Comrade in a Drunken
Row Saturday.
VICTIM IN HOSPITAL.

AMHERST, June 4.—As the outcome of a drunken row, Geo. Davis, a young Englishman, is in Highland V. hospital hovering between life and death with a gaping wound two inches deep in the breast immediately above the heart, and his assailant, S. Hanson, a Norwegian, is in jail. Davis and Hanson came here together from Joggins Mines about a month ago, and were boarding at Mrs. Bailey's on Douglas Avenue. They had been close friends for some time, but had lately quarrelled and a considerable bitterness existed between them. Both men worked at the car works, and Saturday afternoon being a holiday, they both took to drinking. Davis returned to the boarding house about 3 o'clock and laid down to sleep off the effects of his drinking. Later he went out on the verandah, where Hanson and a friend were talking. Hanson told him to go away and finally the parties got into a fight but were separated by other boarders. At the supper table the row was resumed and more blows struck. Mrs. Bailey and others followed Hanson out of the kitchen and closed the door of the dining room. Hanson caught a butcher knife from the table in the kitchen, and re-entered the room, making a charge for Davis, driving the knife into his body and penetrating the lung cells over his heart. Davis dropped to the floor and Hanson left the house, declaring he had fixed him. Surgery aid was called in and the wounded man conveyed to the hospital. His condition is very serious. Hanson was arrested and is now in jail. Both men are said to have borne drinking. Later he went out on the verandah, where Hanson and a friend were talking. ## BRITISH HOUSE OPENS SOON.

Parliament Will Assemble Wednesday.
Elections to be Held
Next January?
TO DEAL WITH LORDS.

London, June 5.—Despite the doubtful rumors of a compromise conference, the candid expectation now is that there will be an autumn session of parliament to deal with the lords' veto question and an election probably in January.

The necessary business of the session commencing Wednesday comprises the regency bill, modification of the king's accession declaration and the venues bill.

Edward Jenkins, agent-general for Canada from 1874 to 1876, is dead.

LITTLE REMAINS OF TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY WRECKED

Of the 250 wrecks which have occurred on Sable Island very little remains except the name signs, taken from the stern or bow. These are used to adorn the main station and boat houses and are reminders of the many tragedies on the treacherous sands of Sable Island. The "bones" of half a dozen wooden ships are to be seen on various parts of the beach.

Improved lights, charts and the Marconi system have robbed the island of its old time terrors. The "establishment" is kept up to its full strength, however, by the Canadian government, aided by a grant from the imperial authorities. There are four lifesaving stations, fully equipped and the coast is patrolled with the greatest regularity.
