The Victorious Stars.

The Streetsville Lacrosse Club visited Mimico on Saturday last, and again suffered defeat at the hands of the Stars by three straight games. Although the result appears very uneven, the match was not so Streetsville worked hard and put up a good game, but their home was too weak for Mc Cartney, Hammill and Eclestone, while on home Hewett, Waites and Coulter were much too fast for the Streetsville defence. The following were the players: Mimico-McWillie, goal; McCartney, point; Hammill, cover point; Stell, Eclestone, Simpson, defence field; Hewett, centre; Waites, James Kay, home field; Kay, outside home; Ceutter, inside home. Streetsville—Rogers, goal; Breakey, point; Kirkwood, cover point; Clark, Irving, Strong, defence field; Monaghan, centre; Allan, Burns, home field; Fair, outside home; Miller, inside home.

The games were won as follows: 1st by Kay in 33 minutes, 2nd by Coulter in 35 minutes, 3rd by Hewett in 17 minutes. The 4th was not finished.

Defeated on Saturday in Ireland.

The Canadian-American football combination played All Ireland before 8000 people in Belfast on Saturday. The visitors were outplayed altogether in the first half of the game, Ireland, putting in four goals while the Canadians could not score. In the second half the Canadians did better and pressed the Irishmen very hard, scoring two to one. The match thus ended in five goals to two in favor of Ireland.
