The first business was a motion intro-duced by Messra. Evans and Gardhouse, that the Committee on Bylaws and Legisla-tion be directed to prepare and on Friday next introduce bylaws appointing commis-sioners of county property and also commis-sioners for the Industrial Home. A report was received from ex-Warden Russell re the unsafe condition of the fur-naces in the Industrial Home at Newmar-let. The report tasted that the brick work

The report stated that the brick work connection with the furnaces had not a completed in accordance with the tract. A more extended report was ched from County Engineer McDougall, found that the walls of the flues were four inches think whereas the plans He found that the walls of the flues were only four inches thick, whereas the plans showed nine inches. The contractor has since made the walls the proper thickness and now considers them quite safe. The engineer then refers to the want of fire protection in the building, and advocates the use of the Babcock fire extinguisher, also connection with the Newmarket fire so connection with the Newmarket fire stem. His report also draws attention to e heating, and says that while the furnaces we proved themselves quite capable of ating the building there should be a tter class of coal used and storm windows aced on the building. He also referred to e absence of closets in the building.

A committee consisting of County Engi-teer McDougall and Messrs. Hill and Cane were appointed to examine the heating and anitary condition of the Industrial Home, Driscoll, A communication was received from the A communication was received from the promoter, complaining that the report re Georgian Bay Canal, at last session of council, had not been printed with minutes. He also sought permission from the county for the Toronto Aqueduct Co. to supply heat, light, water, power, etc., along its line in the York County roads.

A report was presented by ex-Warden Russell from the Commissioners of County Property, which stated that they had asked for tenders for bridge No. 2 at Woodbridge and awarded the contract to Britnell & Co., Toronto, at $9.75 per yard for the masonry and the superstructure at a cost of class with the oldren. onry and the superstructure at a cost of $1397 to the Dominion Bridge Company, Montreal, the contract being now under, way. A temporary bridge had to be erected there, and during the late freshet it was washed away, which necessitated the replacing at a cost of $67. The bridge over the Etobicoke, between York and Peel, will be completed in a few days. Owing to a delay in completing the bridge, over which they had no control, a writ has been they had no control, a writ has been found against the country of York and issued against the counties of York and Peel for $800, which the commissioners have instructed the solicitor to defend.

They also examined the Silverthorne bridge

The report showed that the commissioners had expended the sum of $5458.49.

Mr. Woodcock moved, seconded by Mr.

Evans, that a special committee composed of the warden and Messrs. Richardson, Hill, Evans, Pugeley and the mover be appointed for readjusting and settling the percentage of cost of administration of justice payable by the city of Toronto and Toronto Junction to this county and to settle all matters of difference between the county and city aforesaid arising out of the annexation of territory to said city and to settle any such difference if DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP For the benefit of the new members Mr.

Evans explained that the cost of administration of justice had never been settled us, the undersigned, as lithographers, in the city of Toronto, has this day been dissolved by between the places. When Toronto Junction became incorporated the county had lumped the matter at $1000, as it was impossible to tell at that time what it would cost, and since that time the county had never been able to get a settlement with the city.

Mr. Slater advocated leaving the matter of Toronto, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. All debts owing to the above partnership are to be persented to the aid to the paid to Hough, Harris & Wissler, by whom the same will be settled. Dated at Toronto this 16th day of January, 1894. (Signed), W. B. NEWSOME.

Mr. Slater advocated leaving the matter one, as the county had been humbugged long enough by the city.
Mr. Woodcock's motion requesting the treasurer to lay upon the table a statement re grand and petit jurors was carried.
