NERVOUS AND RUN DOWN

Relieved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Cobourg, Ontario.—"For many years I have had troubles with my nerves and have been in a general run-down condition for some time. I could not do my work half the time because of trouble every month. I was told of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by friends and advised to try it. It has done me good and I strongly recommend it. Since I have taken it I have been able to do all my own work and I also know friends who have found it good. You can use these facts as a testimonial."
—Mrs. ELLEN FLATERS, Box 761, Cobourg, Ontario.

Any woman in this condition should take the Vegetable Compound, for it has helped other women and so it should help you.

For nearly fifty years this good old-fashioned root and herb medicine, which contains no narcotics nor harmful drugs, has been the standard medicine for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, etc.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Allments Peculiar to Women" will be sent you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

A FEW SMILES

Some New, Some With Only Down on Them, and Some with Whiskers Grey With Age

A self-made, self-satisfied and self-assertive itinerant preacher was expatiating to a college graduate on his own eloquence. "Colleges," he declared, "ain't necessary when a preacher's got a genuine call to the ministry—I'm thankful to say the Lord opened my mouth without education." "That's interesting," returned his hearer. "Come to think of it, something like that happened several thousand years ago, in connection with Balaam, wasn't it?"

An eminent Scottish preacher was trying to explain to an old lady the meaning of the Scriptural expression, "Take up thy bed and walk." He informed her that the bed was simply a mat or rug easily taken up and carried away.

"Na, na," was her reply, "I canna believe that. The bed was a regular four-poster. There would be no miracle in walking away wi' a bit o' mat or rug on your back."

Johnny had been using some very unparliamentary language, much to his mother's distress.

"Johnny," she cried, "do stop using such dreadful expressions. I can't imagine where you pick them up."

"Well, mother," replied Johnny, "Shakespeare uses them."

"Then don't play with him again," commanded his mother; "he's not a fit companion for you, I'm sure."

Don't overlook the Taxes

Judge—You stand convicted of having beaten your wife, I hereby fine you $3.30.

Culprit—All right, your honor, but why the thirty cents?

Judge—That's the amusement tax.

The Truth

"James have you whispered today without permission?"

"Only wunst."

"Leroy, should James have said wunst?"

"No'm; he should have said twict."

Relieved His Mind

A traveler who believed himself to be the sole survivor of a shipwreck on a cannibal island hid for days in terror of his life. Dodging from pillar to post he ran into a clump of bushes from which a thin wisp of smoke was rising. His knees knocked together and he lost his breath. Just as he was gathering his remaining strength to flee a voice from the clump remarked, "Why the devil did you play that card?" The "sole" survivor dropped to his knees and devoutly cried, "Thank God, they are Christians!"

Nothing Prepared

The Maiden—In the name of Saint George of England, hasten, Sir Knight! Save me!

Sir Knight—Not so fast, lady fair. The reporters have not yet arrived. Besides, there are the serial rights and the motion picture royalties to be considered.

Warned Off.

"Why have I never married?" the old bachelor said in reply to a leading question. "Well, once upon a time in a crowd, I trod on a lady's gown. She turned furiously, beginning, 'You clumsy brute!' Then she smiled sweetly, and said, 'Oh, I beg pardon! I thought you were my husband! No; it really doesn't matter in the least.' And when I came to think it over, I decided that maybe I'd just as well let marriage alone."

Authorities

Little Nellie told little Anita what she terms only a fib.

Anita—A fib is the same as a story and a story is the same as a lie.

Nellie—No, it is not.

Anita—Yes, it is, because my father said so, and my father is a professor at the university.

Nellie—I don't care if he is. My father is an editor and he knows more about lying than your father.

Better Works Needed

Father O'Leary was off to catch the Dublin express and on the way to the station he met the bishop. "Well what's your hurry?" said the bishop.

"It's the Dublin express I'm after your lordship," replied Father O'Leary.

The bishop pulled out his watch. "Well," he said, "there are seven minutes yet. Let us walk together and both catch it."

They arrived at the station just in time to see the train steaming out.

"Do you know I had the greatest faith in that watch, O'Leary," said the bishop.

"Yes, my lord," replied O'Leary, "But what is faith without good works?"

If one be troubled with corns, he will find in Holloway's Corn Remover an application that will entirely relieve suffering.

YANKEE FODDER

A representative in Congress from New England used to tell with glee of a Southerner just home from New England, who said to a friend:

"You know those little white round beans?"

"Yes," replied the friend, "the kind we feed to our horses?"

"The very same. Well, do you know, sir, that in Boston the enlightened citizens take those little white round beans, boil them for three or four hours, mix them with molasses, and I know not what other ingredients, bake them and then—what do they do with them?"

"They eat 'em, sir," interrupted the first Southerner, impressively, "bless me, sir, they eat 'em!"

THE GIRLS OF TODAY

"I love your eyes, your cheeks, so fair."

I said to pretty Bess.

"I do not like your shade of hair," She said, "It does not match my dress."

I tried that line on Flossie, too.

I said "I love your auburn tresses" She said, "I don't believe you do; I think it's just my knee-length dresses."

In sad despair I turned to Kate.

I tried her with the same old way. She said, "My boy, you're slightly late—

Tomorrow is my wedding day."

Then happily one day I found Myself the heir to riches great.

Just after this good news got round, I got a telegram from Kate.

She said "There never was a chap Who could compare with you, dear Bob."

I proudly answered, "Take a nap; Dear girl, I'm wedded to my job."

Then Flossie tried a come-back bold; "Oh, Bob, they say the Royal's gay."

I said in haughty accents cold, "Be on your way, child, on your way."

Bess telephoned a while ago, Something about some classy dance I said, "Those dances bore me so; Besides I have to press my pants."

Oh, sweet was my revenge, I guess But I must go; it's getting late. I've got a date to-night with Bess; To-morrow, Flossie; next night, Kate.

One of the most effective vermifuges on the market is Miller's Worm Powders. They will not only clear the stomach and bowels of worms, but will prove a very serviceable medicine for children in regulating the infantile system and maintaining it in a healthy condition. There is nothing in their composition that will injure the most delicate stomach when directions are followed, and they can be given to children in the full assurance that they will utterly destroy all worms.

IS THERE ANY NEWS IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD?

Very often there is an interesting piece of news from almost every section of East Lambton that The Guide-Advocate does not get from any of its able correspondents and some subscribers in that particular section wonder why there is no account of it. The editor of The Guide-Advocate cannot write the news of East Lambton and every school section, town and village in it every week—we must have correspondents forwarding us each week news notes from their own respective communities. There are several sections of the county as yet not thoroughly covered, and we invite all our readers to assist us in making The Guide-Advocate the newest weekly paper in the district. You often know of some interesting items in your section, but just neglect sending them to us. Mark your envelope "Printers' Copy," leave it unsealed, and a one-cent stamp will bring it to this office. Also, sign your name—not for publication, but purely as an evidence of good faith. The Guide-Advocate will also supply you with stationery and stamped envelopes, that you may forward us your news items from week to week. Call at this office phone 11w Watford, or drop a postal giving us your name and address and they will be promptly forwarded.

THE HORRORS OF INDIGESTION

Relieved by "Fruit-a-lives" the Fruit Medicine

Indigestion, Weak Digestion or partial digestion of food, is one of the most serious of present-day complaints—because it is responsible for many serious troubles.

Those who suffer with Indigestion, almost invariably are troubled with Rheumatism, Palpitation of the Heart, Sleeplessness and excessive Nervousness.

"Fruit-a-lives" will always relieve Indigestion because these tablets strengthen the stomach muscles, increase the flow of the digestive juices and correct Constipation, which usually accompanies Indigestion.
