

of them as he hoped to," since at Quebec they have neither lodging, food, nor clothing for many besides those already on their hands. The superior ends by giving a list of the various missions in New France, and of the priests and brethren employed therein.

The second part of the Relation of 1636 consists of Brébeuf's report of the Huron mission; it will occupy all of Vol. X. Bibliographical Data for this Relation were given in Vol. VIII.

R. G. T.

MADISON, WIS., June, 1897.